OR2014-13914

Dear Ms. Kostbar:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 535460 (HCAD Internal Reference No. 14-2560C).

The Harris County Appraisal District (the "district") received a request for the iFile numbers for nine specified accounts. You claim some of the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.136 of the Government Code.¹ We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

The requestor only seeks the iFile numbers for the specified accounts. Accordingly, any other information is not responsive to the request for information. This ruling does not address the availability of non-responsive information, and the district need not release non-responsive information to the requestor.

Section 552.136 of the Government Code states "[n]otwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, a credit card, debit card, charge card, or access device number that is collected, assembled, or maintained by or for a governmental body is confidential." Gov't Code § 552.136(b). Section 552.136(a) defines "access device" as "a card, plate, code, account number, personal identification number, electronic serial number, mobile identification number, or other telecommunications service, equipment, or instrument identifier or means of account access that alone or in conjunction with another access device may be used to . . . obtain money, goods, services, or another thing of value [or] initiate a transfer of funds other than a transfer originated solely by paper instrument.” Id. § 552.136(a). You represent the responsive iFile numbers can be used to access confidential property information that is valuable to property owners and third party professionals involved in the protests of property tax appraisals. Based on your representations and our review, we agree the iFile numbers at issue are access device numbers for purposes of section 552.136(a). Accordingly, the district must generally withhold the responsive iFile numbers under section 552.136(b) of the Government Code. However, we note the requestor may be the authorized representative of the owners of the iFile numbers and thus may have a right of access to the responsive information that would otherwise be confidential under section 552.136. See id. § 552.023(a) (“[a] person or a person’s authorized representative has a special right of access, beyond the right of the general public, to information held by a governmental body that relates to the person and that is protected from public disclosure by laws intended to protect that person’s privacy interests”); Open Records Decision No. 481 at 4 (1987) (governmental body may not deny access to person to whom information relates or person’s authorized representative on grounds that information is considered confidential by privacy principles). Accordingly, we must rule conditionally. If the requestor is the authorized representative of the owners of the iFile numbers, the district may not withhold the iFile numbers from this requestor under section 552.136 and they must be released pursuant to section 552.023 of the Government Code. If the requestor is not the authorized representative of the owners of the iFile numbers, you must withhold the iFile numbers under section 552.136 of the Government Code.

¹We note, and you acknowledge, the district did not comply with section 552.301 of the Government Code in requesting this decision. See Gov't Code § 552.301(b). Nevertheless, because the exception you claim can provide a compelling reason to overcome the presumption of openness, we will consider your claimed exception for the submitted information. See id. §§ 552.007, .302, .352.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
