

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

August 22, 2014

Mr. Guillermo Trevino
Assistant City Attorney
Office of the City Attorney
City of Fort Worth
1000 Throckmorton Street, Third Floor
Fort Worth, Texas 76102

OR2014-14872

Dear Mr. Trevino:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 533535 (Fort Worth PIR No. W034354).

The City of Fort Worth (the "city") received a request for five specified police reports. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses the doctrine of common-law privacy, which protects information if it (1) contains highly intimate or embarrassing facts, the publication of which would be highly objectionable to a reasonable person, and (2) is not of legitimate concern to the public. Indus. Found. v. Tex. Indus. Accident Bd., 540 S.W.2d 668, 685 (Tex 1976). To demonstrate the applicability of common-law privacy, both prongs of this test must be established. Id. at 681-82. A compilation of an individual's criminal history is highly embarrassing information, the publication of which would be highly objectionable to a reasonable person. Cf. U.S. Dep't of Justice v. Reporters Comm. for Freedom of the Press, 489 U.S. 749, 764 (1989) (finding significant privacy interest in compilation of individual's criminal history by recognizing distinction between public records found in courthouse files and local police stations and compiled summary of criminal history information). Furthermore, we find a compilation of a private citizen's criminal history is generally not of legitimate concern to the public. You seek to withhold all of the submitted information on the basis that it requires the city to compile an individual's criminal history. However, the requestor seeks five specified reports. We conclude this request does not require the city to compile unspecified criminal history records and does not implicate an individual's right to privacy. Accordingly, the city may not withhold all of the submitted information under section 552.101 of the Government Code on that basis.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code also encompasses section 58.007 of the Family Code, which makes confidential juvenile law enforcement records relating to conduct by a child that occurred on or after September 1, 1997. Fam. Code § 58.007(c). Section 58.007 provides:

(c) Except as provided by Subsection (d), law enforcement records and files concerning a child and information stored, by electronic means or otherwise, concerning the child from which a record or file could be generated may not be disclosed to the public and shall be:

(1) if maintained on paper or microfilm, kept separate from adult files and records;

(2) if maintained electronically in the same computer system as records or files relating to adults, be accessible under controls that are separate and distinct from controls to access electronic data concerning adults; and

(3) maintained on a local basis only and not sent to a central state or federal depository, except as provided by Subchapters B, D, and E.

Id. § 58.007(c). See also id. § 51.02(2) (defining "child" as a person who is ten years of age or older and younger than seventeen years of age at time of reported conduct). Upon review, we find report 07-82880 involves delinquent conduct by a child that occurred after September 1, 1997. See id. § 51.03 (defining "delinquent conduct" for purposes of section 58.007). Further, it does not appear that any of the exceptions in section 58.007 apply. Therefore, report 07-82880 is confidential under section 58.007(c) of the Family Code and the city must withhold it under section 552.101 of the Government Code.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code also encompasses section 261.201(a) of the Family Code, which provides:

(a) Except as provided by Section 261.203, the following information is confidential, is not subject to public release under [the Act] and may be disclosed only for purposes consistent with this code and applicable federal or state law or under rules adopted by an investigating agency:

(1) a report of alleged or suspected abuse or neglect made under this chapter and the identity of the person making the report; and

(2) except as otherwise provided in this section, the files, reports, records, communications, audiotapes, videotapes, and working papers used or developed in an investigation under this chapter or in providing services as a result of an investigation.

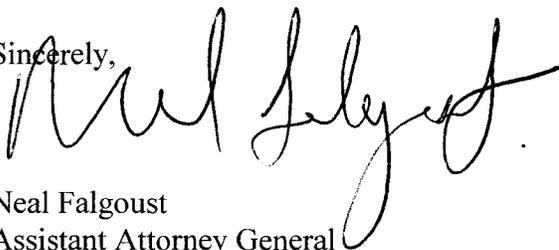

Id. § 261.201(a). Upon review, we find reports 08-131056, 09-1579, 10-20716, and 14-34102 were used or developed in an investigation under chapter 261 of the Family Code or in providing services as a result of an investigation under chapter 261. See id. § 261.001 (defining “abuse” and “neglect” for purposes of chapter 261 of the Family Code); see also id. § 101.003(a) (defining “child” for purposes of chapter 261). You have not indicated the city’s police department has adopted a rule governing the release of this type of information. Therefore, we assume no such regulation exists. Given that assumption, reports 08-131056, 09-1579, 10-20716, and 14-34102 are confidential under section 261.201 of the Family Code and the city must withhold them under section 552.101 of the Government Code.

In summary, the city must withhold report 07-82880 under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 58.007 of the Family Code. The city must withhold reports 08-131056, 09-1579, 10-20716, and 14-34102 under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 261.201 of the Family Code. As our ruling is dispositive, we need not address your remaining arguments.
