

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

September 4, 2014

Ms. Sue Koriath
Assistant Criminal District Attorney
Kaufman County
100 West Mulberry
Kaufman, Texas 75142

OR2014-15579

Dear Ms. Koriath:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 535269.

The Kaufman County Community Supervision and Corrections Department (the "department") received a request for the complete probation records of a named individual in a specified case. You claim the submitted information is not subject to the Act. We have considered your argument and reviewed the submitted information.

You assert the requested information is not subject to the Act because it is a judicial record. The Act is applicable only to "public information." See Gov't Code § 552.021. Section 552.002(a) of the Government Code defines "public information" as follows:

[I]nformation that is written, produced, collected, assembled, or maintained under a law or ordinance or in connection with the transaction of official business:

- (1) by a governmental body;
- (2) for a governmental body and the governmental body;

(A) owns the information;

(B) has a right of access to the information; or

(C) spends or contributes public money for the purpose of writing, producing, collecting, assembling, or maintaining the information; or

(3) by an individual officer or employee of a governmental body in the officer's or employee's official capacity and the information pertains to official business of the governmental body.

Id. § 552.002(a). However, section 552.003 provides that, for purposes of the Act, the term "governmental body" does not include the judiciary. Id. § 552.003(1)(B). Information that is "collected, assembled, or maintained by or for the judiciary is governed by rules adopted by the Supreme Court of Texas or by other applicable laws and rules" and is not subject to the Act. See id. § 552.0035(a); cf. Open Records Decision No. 131 (1976) (applying statutory predecessor to judiciary exclusion under section 552.003(1)(B) prior to enactment of section 552.0035).

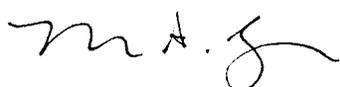

In determining whether information held by a governmental body falls within the judiciary exception to the Act, this office looks to whether the governmental body maintains the relevant records as an agent of the judiciary in a judicial, as opposed to an administrative, capacity. See Open Records Decision No. 646 at 3-4 (1996). This office has determined a community supervision and corrections department is a governmental body for purposes of the Act, and its administrative records, such as personnel files and other records reflecting day-to-day management of the department, are subject to the Act. Id. at 5. In contrast, specific records held by a community supervision and corrections department that concern individuals who are subject to the direct supervision of a court are not subject to the Act because such records are held on behalf of the judiciary. Id.

You state the submitted information consists of probation records of the named individual, and the department maintains the report on behalf of the judiciary. Thus, we find the information at issue is a judicial record maintained by the department as an agent of the judiciary. Accordingly, we conclude the submitted information is not subject to the Act and need not be released in response to this request for information.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/open/orl_ruling_info.shtml, or call the Office of the Attorney General's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. Questions concerning the allowable charges for providing public information under the Act may be directed to the Office of the Attorney General, toll free, at (888) 672-6787.

Sincerely,

Nicholas A. Ybarra
Assistant Attorney General
