Re: Request for any and all records related to incidents involving named individual on 09/18/14 and 09/19/14; request includes arrest reports, time spent in jail, documented police reports, and criminal records; Plano PD Incidents #14-162563 and 14-163261; ORR #MITT092914

Dear Ms. Henry:

The Office of the Attorney General has received your request for a ruling and assigned your request ID# 547614.

After reviewing your arguments and the submitted information, we have determined your request does not present a novel or complex issue. Thus, we are addressing your claims in a memorandum opinion. You claim the requested information must be withheld from the requestor. A request to compile an individual's criminal history implicates this person's privacy. We have concluded such a compilation is highly embarrassing information and is generally not of legitimate concern to the public. Therefore, to the extent you maintain law enforcement records depicting the named individual as a suspect, arrestee, or criminal defendant, you must withhold the requested information under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with common-law privacy.

For more information on the cited exception, please refer to the open government information on our website at <https://www.oag.state.tx.us/open/memorulings.shtml>. You may also contact our Open Government Hotline at 1-877-OPENTEX.
