Mr. Guillermo Trevino
Assistant City Attorney
Office of the City Attorney
City of Fort Worth
1000 Throckmorton Street, 3rd Floor
Fort Worth, Texas 76102

OR2014-19323

Dear Mr. Trevino:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 541507 (Fort Worth PIR No. W036178).

The City of Fort Worth (the "city") received a request for a specified police report. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101 and 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. This section encompasses information protected by other statutes, including section 261.201 of the Family Code, which provides, in part, as follows:

(a) [T]he following information is confidential, is not subject to public release under [the Act] and may be disclosed only for purposes consistent with this code and applicable federal or state law or under rules adopted by an investigating agency:

(1) a report of alleged or suspected abuse or neglect made under this chapter and the identity of the person making the report; and

(2) except as otherwise provided in this section, the files, reports, records, communications, audiotapes, videotapes, and working papers used or developed in an investigation under this chapter or in providing services as a result of an investigation.

(k) Notwithstanding Subsection (a), an investigating agency, other than the [Texas Department of Family and Protective Services] or the Texas Youth Commission, on request, shall provide to the parent, managing conservator, or other legal representative of a child who is the subject of reported abuse or neglect, or to the child if the child is at least 18 years of age, information concerning the reported abuse or neglect that would otherwise be confidential under this section. The investigating agency shall withhold information under this subsection if the parent, managing conservator, or other legal representative of the child requesting the information is alleged to have committed the abuse or neglect.

(l) Before a child or a parent, managing conservator, or other legal representative of a child may inspect or copy a record or file concerning the child under Subsection (k), the custodian of the record or file must redact:

(2) any information that is excepted from required disclosure under [the Act], or other law[.]

Fam. Code § 261.201(a), (k), (l)(2). We agree the submitted information was used or developed in an investigation of alleged child abuse. See id. § 261.001(1) (defining “abuse” for purposes of chapter 261 of the Family Code); see also Penal Code § 21.11(a) (defining “child” for purposes of offense of indecency with a child). Therefore, we find the submitted information is within the scope of section 261.201 of the Family Code. However, we note the requestor is a parent of the child victim in the report and is not alleged to have committed the suspected abuse. Thus, in this instance, the city may not withhold the submitted information from this requestor under section 552.101 on the basis of section 261.201(a). Fam. Code § 261.201(k). However, pursuant to section 261.201(l)(2) of the Family Code, information that is excepted from required disclosure under the Act or other law must still be withheld. Id. § 261.201(l)(2). Accordingly, we will consider the applicability of section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 58.007 of the Family Code and section 552.108 of the Government Code to the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code also encompasses section 58.007 of the Family Code. Juvenile law enforcement records relating to conduct that occurred on or after September 1, 1997, are confidential under section 58.007(c). Section 58.007 provides, in pertinent part, as follows:

(c) Except as provided by subsection (d), law enforcement records and files concerning a child and information stored, by electronic means or otherwise, concerning the child from which a record or file could be generated may not be disclosed to the public and shall be:

(1) if maintained on paper or microfilm, kept separate from adult files and records;

(2) if maintained electronically in the same computer system as records or files relating to adults, be accessible under controls that are separate and distinct from controls to access electronic data concerning adults; and

(3) maintained on a local basis only and not sent to a central state or federal depository, except as provided by Subchapters B, D, and E.

Id. § 58.007(c). For purposes of section 58.007(c), “child” means a person who is ten years of age or older and under seventeen years of age at the time of the reported conduct. See id. § 51.02(2); see also id. § 51.03 (defining “delinquent conduct” for purposes of section 58.007). Upon review, we find the submitted incident report involves delinquent conduct of a child that occurred after September 1, 1997. See id. § 58.007. You state none of the exceptions in section 58.007 apply. Accordingly, we find the submitted information is confidential under section 58.007(c) of the Family Code. Consequently, the submitted information must be withheld under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 58.007 of the Family Code.<sup>1</sup>
