Re: Request for the grand jury determination, court dates, all documentation and/or copies from the investigation regarding the death of named individual

Dear Mr. Bunyard:

The Office of the Attorney General has received your request for a ruling and assigned your request ID# 552265.

After reviewing your arguments and the submitted information, we have determined your request does not present a novel or complex issue. Thus, we are addressing your claims in a memorandum opinion. You state you have released the basic information and CR-3 form and claim the remaining information may be withheld from the requestor pursuant to section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code. We have considered your arguments and the submitted information and have determined that in accordance with section 552.108(a)(1) you may withhold the remaining information. However, basic information concerning the offense is not excepted under section 552.108 pursuant to section 552.108(c) of the Government Code. Basic information includes a detailed description of the offense. The basic information you released does not contain sufficient information to constitute a detailed description of the offense; thus, you must release such information. Lastly, we agree the defendant's driver's license number and state of issuance of the license are confidential under section 552.130 of the Government Code.

For more information on the cited exception, please refer to the open government information on our website at <https://www.oag.state.tx.us/open/memorulings.shtml>. You may also contact our Open Government Hotline at 1-877-OPENTEX.
