OR2015-00132

Dear Mr. Ritter:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 554733 (McKinney ORR# 10-12683).

The City of McKinney (the "city"), which you represent, received a request for the city's current certificate of liability insurance. You claim the requested information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. This exception encompasses information other statutes make confidential. Section 101.104 of the Civil Practice and Remedies Code provides:

- (a) Neither the existence nor the amount of insurance held by a governmental unit is admissible in the trial of a suit under [the Texas Tort Claims Act].
- (b) Neither the existence nor the amount of the insurance is subject to discovery.

Civ. Prac. & Rem. Code § 101.104. You claim the submitted information is confidential under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 101.104 of the Civil Practice and Remedies Code. Section 101.104 prohibits the discovery and admission of insurance information during a trial under the Texas Tort Claims Act, chapter 101 of the Civil Practice and Remedies Code. See City of Bedford v. Schattman, 776 S.W.2d 812, 813-14 (Tex. App.—Fort Worth 1989, orig. proceeding) (protection from producing evidence of insurance coverage under section 101.104 is limited to actions brought under Texas Tort Claims Act). However, section 101.104 does not make insurance information confidential for purposes of section 552.101 of the Government Code. See Open Records Decision No. 551 at 3 (1990) (provisions of section 101.104 “are not relevant to the availability of the information to the public”). The Act differs in purpose from statutes and procedural rules providing for discovery in judicial proceedings. See Gov’t Code §§ 552.005 (Act does not affect scope of civil discovery), .006 (Act does not authorize withholding public information or limit availability of public information to public except as expressly provided by Act); see also Attorney General Opinion JM-1048 (1989); Open Records Decision No. 575 (1990) (overruled in part by Open Records Decision No. 647 (1996)) (section 552.101 does not encompass discovery privileges). Thus, we find section 101.104 of the Civil Practice and Remedies Code does not make the information at issue confidential for purposes of section 552.101 of the Government Code. Therefore, the district may not withhold the submitted information under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 101.104 of the Civil Practice and Remedies Code. As you raise no other exception to disclosure, the city must release the submitted information.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
