Ms. Tiffany Evans
Assistant City Attorney
City of Houston
P.O. Box 368
Houston, Texas 77001-0368

OR2015-01560

Dear Ms. Evans:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 551904 (Houston ID No. 21869).

The City of Houston (the "city") received a request for all documentation and communications to or from personnel in the Office of the Houston City Attorney pertaining to "religious leaders discussing homosexuality, Mayor Annise Parker, the Houston Equal Rights Ordinance or HERO" over a specified time period. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.103 and 552.107 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted representative sample information.<sup>1</sup>

Initially, we note portions of the requested information may have been the subject of previous requests for information, as a result of which this office issued Open Records Letter Nos. 2015-00164 (2015) and 2015-00633 (2015). We have no indication the law, facts, and circumstances on which Open Records Letter Nos. 2015-00164 and 2015-00633 were based have changed. Accordingly, for the responsive information that is identical to the information previously requested and ruled upon by this office, the city may continue to rely on Open Records Letter Nos. 2015-00164 and 2015-00633 as previous determinations and withhold or release the previously ruled upon information in accordance with those rulings. See Open Records Decision No. 673 (2001) (so long as law, facts, circumstances on which prior ruling was based have not changed, first type of previous determination exists where requested information is precisely same information as was addressed in prior attorney general ruling, ruling is addressed to same governmental body, and ruling concludes that information is or is not excepted from disclosure). To the extent the requested information is not encompassed by the previous rulings, we will consider the submitted arguments against disclosure.

<sup>1</sup>We assume that the "representative sample" of records submitted to this office is truly representative of the requested records as a whole. See Open Records Decision Nos. 499 (1988), 497 (1988). This open records letter does not reach, and therefore does not authorize the withholding of, any other requested records to the extent that those records contain substantially different types of information than that submitted to this office.

Section 552.103 of the Government Code provides in relevant part as follows:

(a) Information is excepted from [required public disclosure] if it is information relating to litigation of a civil or criminal nature to which the state or a political subdivision is or may be a party or to which an officer or employee of the state or a political subdivision, as a consequence of the person's office or employment, is or may be a party.

(c) Information relating to litigation involving a governmental body or an officer or employee of a governmental body is excepted from disclosure under Subsection (a) only if the litigation is pending or reasonably anticipated on the date that the requestor applies to the officer for public information for access to or duplication of the information.

Gov't Code § 552.103(a), (c). The purpose of section 552.103 is to enable a governmental body to protect its position in litigation by forcing parties to obtain information relating to litigation through discovery procedures. See Open Records Decision No. 551 at 4-5 (1990). A governmental body has the burden of providing relevant facts and documents to show section 552.103(a) applies in a particular situation. The test for meeting this burden is a showing that (1) litigation was pending or reasonably anticipated on the date the governmental body received the request for information, and (2) the requested information is related to that litigation. See Univ. of Tex. Law Sch. v. Tex. Legal Found., 958 S.W.2d 479, 481 (Tex. App.—Austin 1997, orig. proceeding); Heard v. Houston Post Co., 684 S.W.2d 210, 212 (Tex. App.—Houston [1st Dist.] 1984, writ ref'd n.r.e.); ORD 551 at 4. The governmental body must meet both parts of this test for information to be excepted under section 552.103(a). See ORD 551 at 4.

The city states, and provides documentation showing, a lawsuit styled Woodfill, et al. v. Parker, et al., Cause No. 2014-44947, was pending against the city in the 152nd District Court of Harris County, Texas, when it received the request for information. Therefore, we agree litigation was pending when the city received the request. We also find the city has established the requested information is related to the pending litigation for purposes of section 552.103(a). Therefore, the city may withhold the requested information under section 552.103(a).<sup>2</sup>

Generally, however, once information has been obtained by all parties to the litigation through discovery or otherwise, no section 552.103(a) interest exists with respect to that information. See Open Records Decision Nos. 349 (1982), 320 (1982). Thus, information that has either been obtained from or provided to all parties to the anticipated litigation is not excepted from disclosure under section 552.103(a) and must be disclosed. Further, the applicability of section 552.103(a) ends once the litigation has been concluded or is no longer anticipated. See Attorney General Opinion MW-575 (1982); see also Open Records Decision No. 350 (1982).

In summary, the city may continue to rely on Open Records Letter Nos. 2015-00164 and 2015-00633 as previous determinations and withhold or release any identical requested information in accordance with those rulings. To the extent the requested information is not encompassed by the previous rulings, the city may withhold the requested information under section 552.103 of the Government Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. Sincerely,

Abigail T. Adams
Assistant Attorney General
