Mr. Keith R. Bradford
Assistant County Attorney
County of Nacogdoches
101 West Main Street, Room 230
Nacogdoches, Texas 75961

OR2015-01635

Dear Mr. Bradford:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 553019.

The Nacogdoches County Attorney's Office (the "county attorney's office") received a request for information pertaining to a specified arrest. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.103 and 552.130 of the Government Code.¹ We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information. We have also received and considered comments from the requestor. See Gov't Code § 552.304 (interested party may submit comments stating why information should or should not be released).

Initially, we note the submitted information is subject to section 552.022 of the Government Code. Section 552.022(a)(1) provides for the required public disclosure of "a completed report, audit, evaluation, or investigation made of, for, or by a governmental body[.]" unless it is excepted by section 552.108 of the Government Code or "made confidential under [the Act] or other law[.]" Id. § 552.022(a)(1). The submitted information pertains to a completed investigation. This information is subject to section 552.022(a)(1) and must be released unless it is either excepted under section 552.108 of the Government Code or is confidential ¹Although you do not raise section 552.130 of the Government Code in your brief, we understand you to raise this section based on your markings.

under the Act or other law. You seek to withhold the information subject to section 552.022(a)(1) under section 552.103 of the Government Code. However, section 552.103 is a discretionary exception and does not make information confidential under the Act. See Dallas Area Rapid Transit v. Dallas Morning News, 4 S.W.3d 469, 475-76 (Tex. App.—Dallas 1999, no pet.) (governmental body may waive Gov't Code § 552.103); see also Open Records Decision Nos. 665 at 2 n.5 (2000) (discretionary exceptions generally), 663 at 5 (1999) (waiver of discretionary exceptions). Therefore, the submitted information may not be withheld under section 552.103 of the Government Code. However, as sections 552.101 and 552.130 of the Government Code can make information confidential under the Act, we will consider the applicability of these sections to the submitted information.²

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from public disclosure “information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision.” Gov't Code § 552.101. This section encompasses information protected by other statutes. Section 261.201 of the Family Code provides, in part, as follows:

(a) [T]he following information is confidential, is not subject to public release under Chapter 552, Government Code, and may be disclosed only for purposes consistent with this code and applicable federal or state law or under rules adopted by an investigating agency:

(1) a report of alleged or suspected abuse or neglect made under this chapter and the identity of the person making the report; and

(2) except as otherwise provided in this section, the files, reports, records, communications, audiotapes, videotapes, and working papers used or developed in an investigation under this chapter or in providing services as a result of an investigation.

Fam. Code § 261.201(a). Upon review, we find the submitted information relates to an investigation of alleged or suspected child abuse or neglect conducted by the Nacogdoches County Sheriff's Office (the “sheriff's office”). See id. §§ 261.001 (defining “abuse” and “neglect” for purposes of chapter 261 of the Family Code), 101.003(a) (defining “child” for purposes of this section as person under 18 years of age who is not and has not been married or who has not had the disabilities of minority removed for general purposes). Accordingly, we find this information is subject to chapter 261 of the Family Code. We have no indication the sheriff's office has adopted a rule that governs the release of this type of information.

²The Office of the Attorney General will raise a mandatory exception on behalf of a governmental body, but ordinarily will not raise other exceptions. See Open Records Decision Nos. 481 (1987), 480 (1987), 470 (1987).

Therefore, we assume no such regulation exists. Given that assumption, we conclude the submitted information is confidential pursuant to section 261.201 of the Family Code.

We note the submitted information includes a fingerprint. Section 560.003 of the Government Code provides that “[a] biometric identifier in the possession of a governmental body is exempt from disclosure under [the Act].” See Gov’t Code § 560.003; see also id. §§ 560.001(1) (defining “biometric identifier” to include fingerprints). Section 560.002 of the Government Code provides, however, “[a] governmental body that possesses a biometric identifier of an individual . . . may not sell, lease, or otherwise disclose the biometric identifier to another person unless . . . the individual consents to the disclosure[.]” See id. § 560.002(1)(A). In this instance, the requestor is an attorney for the individual whose fingerprint is at issue. Thus, the requestor has a right of access to his client’s fingerprint under section 560.002 of the Government Code. See id. § 560.002; ORD 481 at 4.

However, there is a conflict between the confidentiality mandated under section 261.201(a) of the Family Code and the right of access provided to this requestor under section 560.002 of the Government Code. Where general and specific statutes are in irreconcilable conflict, the specific provision typically prevails over the general provision unless the general provision was enacted later and there is clear evidence that the legislature intended the general provision to prevail. See Gov’t Code § 311.026(b); City of Lake Dallas v. Lake Cities Mun. Util. Auth., 555 S.W.2d 163, 168 (Tex. Civ. App.—Fort Worth 1977, writ ref’d n.r.e.). In this instance, we find section 261.201 of the Family Code generally applies to information used or developed in an investigation of alleged child abuse or child neglect. Section 560.002, however, applies specifically to biometric identifier information. Accordingly, we find the right of access provided to this requestor under section 560.002 prevails over the general confidentiality of section 261.201 of the Family Code. Thus, the county attorney’s office must release the fingerprint of the requestor’s client, which we have marked, but it must withhold the remaining information under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 261.201(a) of the Family Code.³ See Open Records Decision No. 440 at 2 (1986) (predecessor statute).
