Dear Ms. Leal:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 553235 (Comal File No. 14-OR-142).

The Comal County District Attorney's Office (the "district attorney's office") received a request for the "mark-off sheet" used on a specified date at the courthouse to track prospective juror attendance. You claim the submitted information is not subject to the Act. We have considered your arguments and reviewed the submitted information.

You argue the submitted information constitutes records of the judiciary not subject to the Act. The Act generally requires the public disclosure of information maintained by a "governmental body." While the Act's definition of a "governmental body" is broad, it specifically excludes the judiciary. See Gov't Code § 552.003(1)(B). In determining whether a governmental entity falls within the judiciary exception of the Act, this office looks to whether the entity is acting in a judicial capacity or solely in an administrative capacity. See Open Records Decision No. 646 at 2-3 (1996) (citing Benavides v. Lee, 665 S.W.2d 151 (Tex. App.—San Antonio 1983, no writ)).

Chapter 62 of the Government Code, which deals with the judicial branch, provides for the compilation of a list of prospective jurors. See Gov't Code §§ 62.001-62.011 (detailing jury list selection methods such as a jury wheel and electronic or mechanical selection). Section 62.012 of the Government Code provides:

- (a) When a justice of the peace or a county or district judge requires a jury for a particular week, the judge, within a reasonable time before the prospective jurors are summoned, shall notify the county clerk, for a county court jury, or the district clerk, for a justice or district court jury, to open the next consecutively numbered envelope containing a jury list that is in the clerk's possession and has not been opened. The judge shall also notify the clerk of the date that the prospective jurors are to be summoned to appear for jury service.

(b) On receiving the notice from the judge, the clerk shall immediately write on the jury list the date that the prospective jurors are to be summoned to appear and shall deliver the jury list to:

- (1) the sheriff, for a county or district court jury; or
- (2) the sheriff or constable, for a justice court jury.

Id. § 62.012. Upon receipt of the jury list, the sheriff summons the prospective jurors to appear on the designated day. Id. § 62.013. Chapter 19 of the Code of Criminal Procedure outlines a similar procedure for the selection of prospective grand jurors. In Open Records Decision No. 433 (1986), this office determined a list of prospective grand jurors is a record of the judiciary because the list is "compiled, and at virtually all times is maintained, by the jury commissioners, the district judge, or the court clerk, all of whom are part of the judiciary or agents thereof." ORD 433 at 2-3. We also found the sheriff was considered an agent of the judiciary when using the grand jury list to summon the jurors for service. Id. However, the district attorney holding a list of names of impaneled jurors was not found to be acting as an agent of the judiciary, since he had "no task to perform with that list." Id. at 3. Thus, the list of impaneled jurors held by the district attorney was not within the constructive possession of the judiciary, and was subject to the Act. Id.

The submitted information is held by the district attorney's office. Based upon the reasoning in Open Records Decision No. 433, we find this information does not constitute records of the judiciary and is, therefore, subject to the Act. See Gov't Code § 552.021 (Act generally requires disclosure of information maintained by "governmental body"). Accordingly, we will consider whether the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under the Act.

We note some of the submitted information is subject to section 552.101 of the Government Code, which excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision."¹ Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses the doctrine of common-law privacy, which protects information that is (1) highly intimate or embarrassing, the publication of which would be highly objectionable to a reasonable person, and (2) not of legitimate concern to the public. Indus. Found. v. Tex. Indus. Accident Bd., 540 S.W.2d 668, 685 (Tex. 1976). To demonstrate the applicability of common-law privacy, both prongs of this test must be satisfied. Id. at 681-82. Types of information considered intimate or embarrassing by the Texas Supreme Court are delineated in Industrial Foundation. Id. at 683. Additionally, this office has concluded some kinds of medical information are generally highly intimate or embarrassing. See Open Records Decision No. 455 (1987). Upon review, we find the information we have marked satisfies the standard articulated by the Texas Supreme Court in Industrial Foundation. Therefore, the district attorney's office must withhold the information we have marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with common-law privacy. As you have not claimed any exceptions to disclosure under the Act, the district attorney's office must release the remaining information.

¹The Office of the Attorney General will raise a mandatory exception on behalf of a governmental body, but ordinarily will not raise other exceptions. See Open Records Decision Nos. 481 (1987), 480 (1987), 470 (1987).

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
