OR2015-04832

Dear Ms. Mares:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 557646 (ORR #10-12981).

The City of McKinney (the "city"), which you represent, received a request for information pertaining to a specified arrest. You state the city has released some information. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.108, 552.1175, and 552.130 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Initially, we note the submitted information contains a CR-3 accident report form completed pursuant to Chapter 550 of the Transportation Code. See Transp. Code § 550.064 (officer's accident report). Section 550.065(b) provides, except as provided by subsection (c) or subsection (e), accident reports are privileged and confidential. Id. § 550.065(b). Section 550.065(c)(4) provides for the release of accident reports to a person who provides two of the following three pieces of information: (1) the date of the accident; (2) the name of any person involved in the accident; and (3) the specific location of the accident. Id. § 550.065(c)(4). In this instance, the requestor has provided the department with the requisite pieces of information specified by the statute. Although you seek to withhold this information under sections 552.108 and 552.1175 of the Government Code, statutes governing the release of specific information prevail over the general exceptions to disclosure found in the Act. See Attorney General Opinion DM-146 at 3 (1992); see also Open Records Decision Nos. 613 at 4 (1993) (exceptions in Act cannot impinge on statutory right of access to information), 451 (1986) (specific statutory right of access provisions overcome general exceptions to disclosure under the Act). Thus, the city may not withhold any portion of the CR-3 report under section 552.108 or section 552.1175 of the Government Code. Accordingly, the city must release the CR-3 accident report in its entirety to the requestor pursuant to section 550.065(c)(4) of the Transportation Code.

Section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure “[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime . . . if . . . release of the information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime[.]” Gov’t Code § 552.108(a)(1). A governmental body claiming section 552.108(a)(1) must reasonably explain how and why the release of the requested information would interfere with law enforcement. See id. §§ 552.108(a)(1), .301(e)(1)(A); see also Ex parte Pruitt, 551 S.W.2d 706 (Tex. 1977). You state the remaining information pertains to a pending criminal investigation. Based on your representation, we conclude the release of the remaining information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime. See Houston Chronicle Publ’g Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975) (court delineates law enforcement interests that are present in active cases), writ ref’d n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976). Thus, section 552.108(a)(1) is applicable to the remaining information.

However, we note, and you acknowledge, section 552.108 does not except from disclosure basic information about an arrested person, an arrest, or a crime. Gov’t Code § 552.108(c). Basic information refers to the information held to be public in Houston Chronicle. See 531 S.W.2d at 186-88; Open Records Decision No. 127 (1976) (summarizing types of information considered to be basic information). Thus, with the exception of the basic information, you may withhold the remaining information under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code.<sup>1</sup>

Section 552.1175 of the Government Code protects the home address, home telephone number, emergency contact information, date of birth, or social security number of an individual to whom this section applies, or information that reveals whether the individual has family members, when that information is held by a governmental body in a non-employment capacity and the individual elects to keep the information confidential. See Gov’t Code § 552.1175. Section 552.1175 applies, in part, to “peace officers as defined by Article 2.12, Code of Criminal Procedure[.]” Id. § 552.1175(a)(1). Some of the basic information, which we have marked, relates to an individual who is licensed as a peace officer and the information is not held in an employment capacity. You state the officer at issue has elected to restrict access to the information in accordance with section 552.1175(b). Accordingly, in releasing the basic information, the city must withhold the information we marked under section 552.1175 of the Government Code.

<sup>1</sup>As our ruling is dispositive, we need not address your remaining argument against disclosure of this information.

In summary, the city must release the CR-3 accident report in its entirety to the requestor pursuant to section 550.065(c)(4) of the Transportation Code. With the exception of basic information, the city may withhold the remaining information under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code. In releasing the basic information, the city must withhold the information we marked under section 552.1175 of the Government Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
