Ms. Amy L. Sims
Deputy City Attorney
Office of the City Attorney
City of Lubbock
P.O. Box 2000
Lubbock, Texas 7945

OR2015-06919

Dear Ms. Sims:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 562387.

The Lubbock Police Department (the "department") received a request for ten categories of information pertaining to a specified case number. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.108 of the Government Code.<sup>1</sup> We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Initially, we note the submitted information contains a CR-3 accident report form. Section 550.065(b) of the Transportation Code states that except as provided by subsection (c) or (e), accident reports are privileged and for the confidential use of certain specified entities. Transp. Code § 550.065(b). The submitted CR-3 crash report was completed pursuant to chapter 550 of the Transportation Code. See id. § 550.064 (officer's accident report). Section 550.065(c)(4) provides for the release of accident reports to a person who provides two of the following three pieces of information: (1) the date of the accident; (2) the name of any person involved in the accident; and (3) the specific location of the accident. Id. § 550.065(c)(4). Under this provision, a governmental entity is required to release a copy of an accident report to a person who provides two or more pieces of information specified by the statute. Id.

<sup>1</sup>Although you also raise section 552.101 of the Government Code, you provide no arguments to support this claim. Therefore, we assume you have withdrawn your claim for section 552.101. See Gov't Code §§552.301, 302.

In this instance, the requestor has provided the department with the requisite information for the CR-3 accident report. Although you seek to withhold this information under section 552.108 of the Government Code, we note information that is specifically made public by statute may not be withheld from the public under the general exceptions to public disclosure under the Act. See, e.g., Open Records Decision Nos. 544 (1990), 378 (1983), 161 (1977), 146 (1976). Accordingly, the department must release the CR-3 accident report in its entirety to the requestor pursuant to section 550.065(c)(4) of the Transportation Code.

Section 552.108(a)(2) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure information concerning an investigation that concluded in a result other than conviction or deferred adjudication. Gov't Code § 552.108(a)(2). A governmental body claiming section 552.108(a)(2) must demonstrate the requested information relates to a criminal investigation that concluded in a final result other than a conviction or deferred adjudication. See id. § 552.301(e)(1)(A). You state the remaining information pertains to a concluded investigation that did not result in a conviction or deferred adjudication. Based on your representation and our review, we conclude section 552.108(a)(2) of the Government Code is applicable to the remaining information.

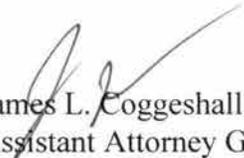

Section 552.108 does not except from disclosure “basic information about an arrested person, an arrest, or a crime.” Id. § 552.108(c). Basic information refers to the information held to be public in Houston Chronicle Publishing Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist] 1975), writ ref'd n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976). See Open Records Decision No. 127 (1976) (summarizing the types of information considered to be basic information). Accordingly, with the exception basic information, which must be released, the department may withhold the remaining information under section 552.108(a)(2) of the Government Code.

In summary, the department must release the submitted CR-3 accident report under section 550.065(c) of the Transportation Code. With the exception basic information, which must be released, the department may withhold the remaining information under section 552.108(a)(2) of the Government Code.
