Dear Ms. Benton:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 561768 (City of Waco Reference No. LGL-15-036).

The City of Waco (the "city") received a request for a specified offense report. You state you will release some information. You also state you will withhold some information pursuant to section 552.147 of the Government Code.¹ You claim portions of the submitted information are excepted from disclosure under section 552.108 of the Government Code.² We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted representative sample of information.³

¹Section 552.147(b) of the Government Code authorizes a governmental body to redact a living person's social security number from public release without the necessity of requesting a decision from this office. See Gov't Code § 552.147(b).

²Although you marked some information under section 552.101 of the Government Code, you make no arguments to support this exception. Therefore, we assume you have withdrawn your claim section 552.101 applies to the submitted information. See id. §§ 552.301, .302.

³We assume the "representative sample" of records submitted to this office is truly representative of the requested records as a whole. See Open Records Decision Nos. 499 (1988), 497 (1988). This open records letter does not reach, and therefore does not authorize the withholding of, any other requested records to the extent that those records contain substantially different types of information than that submitted to this office.

Section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code exempts from disclosure “[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime [if] release of the information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime[.]” Gov’t Code § 552.108(a)(1). A governmental body claiming section 552.108(a)(1) must reasonably explain how and why the release of the requested information would interfere with law enforcement. See id. §§ 552.108(a)(1), .301(e)(1)(A); see also Ex parte Pruitt, 551 S.W.2d 706 (Tex. 1977). You state the submitted information pertains to a case that is still pending. Based on your representations, we conclude the release of the information you marked would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime. See Houston Chronicle Publ’g Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975) (court delineates law enforcement interests that are present in active cases), writ ref’d n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976). Accordingly, section 552.108(a)(1) is applicable to the information you marked, and the city may withhold the information you marked under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code.

You state you are withholding portions of the remaining information under section 552.130(c) of the Government Code.⁴ We note the remaining information contains additional information subject to section 552.130.
