OR2015-08910

Dear Ms. Alcorn:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 562840 (CCPD File No. JGar4).

The Corpus Christi Police Department (the "department") received a request for all records related to the requestor and two named individuals over a specified time period. You state you have released some information to the requestor. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses section 58.007 of the Family Code, which provides, in relevant part:

(c) Except as provided by Subsection (d), law enforcement records and files concerning a child and information stored, by electronic means or otherwise, concerning the child from which a record or file could be generated may not be disclosed to the public and shall be:

- (1) if maintained on paper or microfilm, kept separate from adult files and records;
- (2) if maintained electronically in the same computer system as records or files relating to adults, be accessible under controls that are separate and distinct from controls to access electronic data concerning adults; and
- (3) maintained on a local basis only and not sent to a central state or federal depository, except as provided by Subchapters B, D, and E.

Fam. Code § 58.007(c). For purposes of section 58.007(c), “child” means a person who is ten years of age or older and under seventeen years of age at the time of the reported conduct. See id. § 51.02(2); see also id. § 51.03(a)-(b) (defining “delinquent conduct” and “conduct in need of supervision” for purposes of section 58.007(c)). Upon review, we find the information in Exhibit C involves juvenile delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision that occurred after September 1, 1997. As such, this information constitutes juvenile law enforcement records that are confidential pursuant to section 58.007(c). It does not appear any of the exceptions to confidentiality under section 58.007 apply in this instance. Thus, the department must withhold the information in Exhibit C under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 58.007(c) of the Family Code.

Section 552.101 also encompasses section 261.201(a) of the Family Code, which provides as follows:

- (a) The following information is confidential, is not subject to public release under [the Act] and may be disclosed only for purposes consistent with this code and applicable federal or state law or under rules adopted by an investigating agency:
 - (1) a report of alleged or suspected abuse or neglect made under this chapter and the identity of the person making the report; and
 - (2) except as otherwise provided in this section, the files, reports, records, communications, audiotapes, videotapes, and working papers used or developed in an investigation under this chapter or in providing services as a result of an investigation.

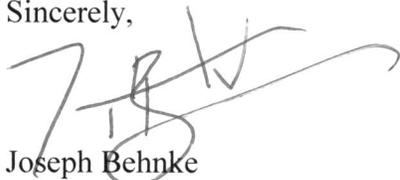

Id. § 261.201(a). Upon review, we find the information in Exhibit B consists of information used or developed in an investigation of alleged or suspected child abuse. See id. §§ 101.003(a) (defining “child” for purposes of chapter 261 of the Family Code), 261.001 (defining “abuse” for purposes of chapter 261 of the Family Code). Accordingly, we find this information is subject to chapter 261 of the Family Code. The department states it has not adopted a rule that governs the release of this type of information. Accordingly, we conclude the information in Exhibit B is confidential pursuant to section 261.201 of the Family Code, and the department must withhold such information under section 552.101 of the Government Code. See Open Records Decision No. 440 at 2 (1986) (predecessor statute).

In summary, the department must withhold the information in Exhibit C under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 58.007 of the Family Code. The department must withhold the information in Exhibit B under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 261.201 of the Family Code.
