Ms. Audra Gonzalez Welter
Attorney & Public Information Coordinator
Office of General Counsel
The University of Texas System

OR2015-13172

Dear Ms. Welter:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 573998 (OGC# 162067).

The University of Texas at Austin (the "university") received a request for any records or communications created on or after January 1, 2015, and kept by Bureau of Economic Geology personnel, that pertain to earthquake monitoring research or the potential funding of such research. You state the university has no information responsive to a portion of the request.¹ You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101, 552.106, and 552.111 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted representative sample of information.²

¹The Act does not require a governmental body that receives a request for information to create information that did not exist when the request was received. See Econ. Opportunities Dev. Corp. v. Bustamante, 562 S.W.2d 266 (Tex. Civ. App.—San Antonio 1978, writ dismissed); Open Records Decision Nos. 605 at 2 (1992), 563 at 8 (1990), 555 at 1-2 (1990), 452 at 3 (1986), 362 at 2 (1983).

²We assume the "representative sample" of records submitted to this office is truly representative of the requested records as a whole. See Open Records Decision Nos. 499 (1988), 497 (1988). This open records letter does not reach, and therefore does not authorize the withholding of, any other requested records to the extent those records contain substantially different types of information than that submitted to this office.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from public disclosure “information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision.” Gov’t Code § 552.101. This section encompasses section 51.914 of the Education Code, which provides, in pertinent part, the following:

(a) In order to protect the actual or potential value, the following information is confidential and is not subject to disclosure under [the Act], or otherwise:

(1) all information relating to a product, device, or process, the application or use of such a product, device, or process, and all technological and scientific information (including computer programs) developed in whole or in part at a state institution of higher education, regardless of whether patentable or capable of being registered under copyright or trademark laws, that have a potential for being sold, traded, or licensed for a fee; [or]

(2) any information relating to a product, device, or process, the application or use of such product, device, or process, and any technological and scientific information (including computer programs) that is the proprietary information of a person, partnership, corporation, or federal agency that has been disclosed to an institution of higher education solely for the purposes of a written research contract or grant that contains a provision prohibiting the institution of higher education from disclosing such proprietary information to third persons or parties[.]

(b) Information maintained by or for an institution of higher education that would reveal the institution’s plans or negotiations for commercialization or a proposed research agreement, contract, or grant, or that consists of unpublished research or data that may be commercialized, is not subject to [the Act], unless the information has been published, is patented, or is otherwise subject to an executed license, sponsored research agreement, or research contract or grant. In this subsection, “institution of higher education” has the meaning assigned by Section 61.003 [of the Education Code].

Educ. Code § 51.914(a)(1)-(2), (b). As noted in Open Records Decision No. 651 (1997), the legislature is silent as to how this office or a court is to determine whether particular scientific information has “a potential for being sold, traded, or licensed for a fee.” ORD 651 at 9-10. Furthermore, whether particular scientific information has such a potential is a question of fact that this office is unable to resolve in the opinion process. See id. at 10. Thus, this office has stated in considering whether requested information has “a potential for being sold, traded, or licensed for a fee,” we will rely on a governmental body’s assertion that the information has this potential. See id. However, a governmental body’s determination that information has a potential for being sold, traded, or licensed for a fee is subject to judicial review. See id. We note section 51.914 is not applicable to working titles of experiments or other information that does not reveal the details of the research. See Open Records Decision Nos. 557 at 3 (1990), 497 at 6-7.

You state the university is an institution of higher education for purposes of section 61.003(4) and (8) of the Education Code. See Educ. Code § 61.003(4), (8). You state the submitted information contains scientific information as well as procedures and other information that relate to a product, device, or process developed by university employees. You explain the information at issue describes experimentation and research that has the potential for being further sold, traded, or licensed for a fee and is, therefore, confidential pursuant to section 51.914(a). Based on your representations and our review, we find you have demonstrated the applicability of section 51.914 of the Education Code to the information at issue. Accordingly, the university must withhold the submitted information under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 51.914 of the Education Code.³

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
