Dear Ms. Ayala:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 572872 (OGC No. 161858).

The University of Texas at Austin (the "university") received a request for a specified incident report. You state the university will redact motor vehicle record information subject to section 552.130(c) of the Government Code.<sup>1</sup> Although you take no position as to whether the submitted information is excepted from public disclosure under the Act, you state release of the submitted information may implicate the interests of the Leander Police Department (the "department"). Accordingly, you state, and provide documentation showing, you notified the department of the request for information and of its right to submit arguments to this office as to why the submitted information should not be released. See Gov't Code § 552.304 (interested third party may submit comments stating why information should or should not be released). We have reviewed the submitted information.

<sup>1</sup>Section 552.130(c) of the Government Code allows a governmental body to redact the information described in section 552.130(a) without the necessity of seeking a decision from the attorney general. Gov't Code § 552.130(c). If a governmental body redacts such information, it must notify the requestor in accordance with section 552.130(e). See id. § 552.130(d),(e).

As of the date of this letter, we have not received any comments from the department or any other third party explaining why any portion of the submitted information should not be released to the requestor. As no exceptions to disclosure have been raised, the submitted information must be released.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.
