Dear Ms. Kim:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 574674 (ORR# 05-10024).

The Austin Police Department (the "department") received a request for the personnel file of a named officer. You claim the requested information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted representative sample of information.¹

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. This section encompasses information protected by other statutes such as section 143.089 of the Local Government Code. You state the City of Austin is a civil service city under chapter 143 of the Local Government Code. Section 143.089 requires a civil service city to maintain two different types of personnel files relating to a police officer: a police officer's civil service file that the civil service director is required to maintain, and

This open records letter does not reach, and therefore does not authorize the withholding of, any other requested records to the extent that those records contain substantially different types of information than that submitted to this office.

an internal file that the police department may maintain for its own use. Local Gov't Code § 143.089(a), (g). Information that reasonably relates to an officer's employment relationship with the police department is maintained in a police department's internal file pursuant to section 143.089(g) and is confidential and must not be released. See id. § 143.089(g) (“[T]he department may not release any information contained in the department file to any agency or person requesting information relating to a . . . police officer.”); see also City of San Antonio v. San Antonio Express-News, 47 S.W.3d 556 (Tex. App.—San Antonio 2000, pet. denied); City of San Antonio v. Texas Attorney General, 851 S.W.2d 946, 949 (Tex. App.—Austin 1993, writ denied). You state the submitted information is maintained only in the department's confidential internal file for the officer in question pursuant to section 143.089(g). Based on your representation and our review, we conclude the department must withhold the submitted information under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 143.089(g) of the Local Government Code.
