Dear Mr. Moore:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 579688 (TAMU 15-567).

Texas A&M University (the "university") received a request for various specified reports, the attendance sheet for a specified meeting, the minutes of a specified meeting, and certain documents pertaining to specified individuals. You indicate the university has released some information. We note you have redacted certain information subject to section 552.117 of the Government Code pursuant to section 552.024 of the Government Code.<sup>1</sup> You claim a portion of the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted representative sample of information.<sup>2</sup>

<sup>1</sup>Section 552.024 of the Government Code permits a governmental body to redact information subject to section 552.117 of the Government Code in certain situations without requesting a decision from this office. See Gov't Code § 552.024(c).

<sup>2</sup>We assume the "representative sample" of records submitted to this office is truly representative of the requested records as a whole. See Open Records Decision Nos. 499 (1988), 497 (1988). This open records letter does not reach, and therefore does not authorize the withholding of, any other requested records to the extent that those records contain substantially different types of information than that submitted to this office.

would be highly objectionable to a reasonable person, and (2) not of legitimate concern to the public. Indus. Found. v. Tex. Indus. Accident Bd., 540 S.W.2d 668, 685 (Tex. 1976). To demonstrate the applicability of common-law privacy, both prongs of this test must be satisfied. Id. at 681-82. Types of information considered intimate and embarrassing by the Texas Supreme Court are delineated in Industrial Foundation. Id. at 683. Additionally, this office has concluded some kinds of medical information are generally highly intimate or embarrassing. See Open Records Decision No. 455 (1987). Upon review, we find the information you have marked satisfies the standard articulated by the Texas Supreme Court in Industrial Foundation. However, we note the information at issue pertains to an individual who has been de-identified under section 552.117 of the Government Code. Therefore, the university may not withhold the information pertaining to the de-identified individual under section 552.101 in conjunction with common-law privacy. As you raise no further exceptions to disclosure, the university must release the submitted information.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
