Mr. Collin Coker
Chief Juvenile Probation Officer
County of McLennan
McLennan County Juvenile Probation

Dear Ms. Coker:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 581451.

The McLennan County Juvenile Probation Department (the "department") received a request for records pertaining to the requestor's son who was in detention over two specified time periods, including information from any drug tests or if any medical attention was rendered. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses section 58.007 of the Family Code, which makes confidential juvenile law enforcement records relating to conduct that occurred on or after September 1, 1997. Section 58.007 provides in relevant part the following:

(b) Except as provided by Section 54.051(d-1) and by Article 15.27, Code of Criminal Procedure, the records and files of a juvenile court, a clerk of court, a juvenile probation department, or a prosecuting attorney relating to a child who is a party to a proceeding under [Title 3 of the Family Code] may be inspected or copied only by:

- (1) the judge, probation officers, and professional staff or consultants of the juvenile court;
- (2) a juvenile justice agency as that term is defined by Section 58.101;
- (3) an attorney for a party to the proceeding;
- (4) a public or private agency or institution providing supervision of the child by arrangement of the juvenile court, or having custody of the child under juvenile court order; or
- (5) with leave of the juvenile court, any other person, agency, or institution having a legitimate interest in the proceeding or in the work of the court.

(i) In addition to the authority to release information under Subsection (b)(5), a juvenile probation department may release information contained in its records without leave of the juvenile court pursuant to guidelines adopted by the juvenile board.

Fam. Code § 58.007(b), (i). You inform us the submitted information consists of records maintained by the department concerning a juvenile offender. We understand the submitted information relates to a juvenile who was a party to proceedings under the Juvenile Justice Code, title 3 of the Family Code. Although the requestor is the mother of the individual at issue, the requestor is not a person or entity authorized to access this information under section 58.007(b). However, as a juvenile probation department, the department has the discretion to release the requested information pursuant to guidelines adopted by the juvenile board. See id. § 58.007(i). You do not inform us the juvenile board has adopted a rule governing the release of this type of information; therefore, we assume no such regulation exists. Given that assumption, and based on our review of the submitted information, the department generally must withhold the submitted information under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 58.007(b) of the Family Code.

We note, however, the submitted information contains the juvenile's fingerprints. Access to fingerprint information is governed by sections 560.001, 560.002, and 560.003 of the Government Code. Section 560.001 provides in part that "[i]n this chapter . . . '[b]iometric identifier' means a retina or iris scan, fingerprint, voiceprint, or record of hand or face geometry." Gov't Code § 560.001(1). Section 560.003 provides that "[a] biometric identifier in the possession of a governmental body is exempt from disclosure under [the Act].” Id. § 560.003. Section 560.002 provides, however, that “[a] governmental body that possesses a biometric identifier of an individual . . . may not sell, lease, or otherwise disclose the biometric identifier to another person unless . . . the individual consents to the disclosure[.]” Id. § 560.002(1)(A). Thus, section 560.002(1)(A) of the Government Code gives an individual or her authorized representative a right of access to her own fingerprint information. We note the requestor is the parent of the juvenile. Accordingly, the requestor has a special right of access to the juvenile’s fingerprints pursuant to section 560.002 of the Government Code.

Thus, although the submitted information is generally confidential under section 58.007(b) of the Family Code, section 560.002 of the Government Code provides the requestor with a right of access to the juvenile’s fingerprints. Therefore, there is a conflict of laws between section 58.007(b) of the Family Code and section 560.002 of the Government Code. Where information falls within both a general and a specific statutory provision, the specific provision prevails over the general. See id. § 311.026 (where a general statutory provision conflicts with a specific provision, the specific provision prevails as an exception to the general provision); Cuellar v. State, 521 S.W.2d 277 (Tex. Crim. App.1975) (under well-established rule of statutory construction, specific statutory provisions prevail over general ones). In this instance, because sections 560.002 and 560.003 of the Government Code specifically govern access to biometric identifiers, these provisions are more specific than the general confidentiality section 58.007(b) of the Family Code provides for juvenile probation records. Thus, the statutory right of access granted by section 560.002 of the Government Code prevails over the more general confidentiality provision of section 58.007(b) of the Family Code. Therefore, the juvenile’s fingerprints, which we have marked, must be released to this requestor under section 560.002 of the Government Code. The department must withhold the remaining information under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 58.007(b) of the Family Code.<sup>1</sup>
