Dear Ms. Henry:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 585145 (ORR #TIMV080615).

The Plano Police Department (the "department") received a request for information pertaining to a specified incident involving a named individual. You state you have released some information to the requestor. You claim some of the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses section 58.007 of the Family Code, which makes confidential juvenile law enforcement records relating to conduct that occurred on or after September 1, 1997. See Fam. Code § 58.007(c). Section 58.007 provides, in relevant part, the following:

(c) Except as provided by Subsection (d), law enforcement records and files concerning a child and information stored, by electronic means or otherwise, concerning the child from which a record or file could be generated may not be disclosed to the public and shall be:

(1) if maintained on paper or microfilm, kept separate from adult files and records;

(2) if maintained electronically in the same computer system as records or files relating to adults, be accessible under controls that are separate and distinct from controls to access electronic data concerning adults; and

(3) maintained on a local basis only and not sent to a central state or federal depository, except as provided by Subchapters B, D, and E.

(e) Law enforcement records and files concerning a child may be inspected or copied by a juvenile justice agency as that term is defined by Section 58.101, a criminal justice agency as that term is defined by Section 411.082, Government Code, the child, and the child's parent or guardian.

...

(j) Before a child or a child's parent or guardian may inspect or copy a record or file concerning the child under Subsection (e), the custodian of the record or file shall redact:

(1) any personally identifiable information about a juvenile suspect, offender, victim, or witness who is not the child[.]

(2) any information that is excepted from required disclosure under [the Act] or other law.

Id. § 58.007(c), (e), (j). Upon review, we find the submitted information involves alleged juvenile delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision that occurred after September 1, 1997. See Act of June 1, 2015, 84th Leg., R.S., ch. 935, § 18, 2015 Tex. Sess. Law Serv. 3224, 3233-34 (Vernon) (to be codified as amendments to Fam. Code § 51.03); Act of May 31, 2015, 84th Leg., R.S., ch. 944, § 4, 2015 Tex. Sess. Law Serv. 3268, 3269-70 (Vernon) (to be codified as an amendment to Fam. Code § 51.03(b)); Act of June 1, 2015, 84th Leg., R.S., ch. 1273, § 3, 2015 Tex. Sess. Law Serv. 4310, 4311 (Vernon) (to be codified as an amendment to Fam. Code § 51.03(b)) (defining "delinquent conduct" and "conduct indicating a need for supervision" for purposes of section 58.007). Accordingly, the submitted information is generally confidential under section 58.007(c) of the Family Code.

However, the requestor may be one of the juvenile offenders listed in the submitted information and is now an adult. Under section 58.007(e), the former juvenile may inspect law enforcement records concerning herself. See Fam. Code § 58.007(e). However, the personally identifiable information concerning any other juvenile suspect, offender, victim, or witness must be redacted pursuant to section 58.007(j)(1). Id. § 58.007(j)(1). For purposes of section 58.007(j)(1), a juvenile suspect or offender is a child as defined by section 51.02 of the Family Code. See id. § 51.02(2) (defining “child” as person ten years of age or older and younger than seventeen years of age when conduct occurred). For the purposes of section 58.007(j)(1), a juvenile victim or witness is a person who is under eighteen years of age. Accordingly, to the extent the requestor is not one of the juvenile offenders listed in the submitted report, the department must withhold the submitted report in its entirety from the requestor under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 58.007(c) of the Family Code. However, to the extent the requestor is one of the juvenile offenders listed in the submitted report, the department must withhold the information we have marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 58.007(j)(1) of the Family Code. We note section 58.007(j)(2) provides information subject to any other exception to disclosure under the Act or other law must be redacted. See id. § 58.007(j)(2). Thus we will address the applicability of any remaining exceptions to disclosure.

Section 552.130 of the Government Code provides information relating to a motor vehicle operator’s or driver’s license or permit, a motor vehicle title or registration, or a personal identification document issued by an agency of Texas or another state or country is excepted from public release. Gov’t Code § 552.130(a). We note, however, because section 552.130 is designed to protect the privacy of individuals, the requestor has a right of access to her own driver’s license number under section 552.023 of the Government Code. See id. § 552.023(a); Open Records Decision No. 481 at 4 (1987). Accordingly, the department must withhold the information we have indicated under section 552.130 of the Government Code.

In summary, to the extent the requestor is not one of the juvenile offenders listed in the submitted report, the department must withhold the submitted report in its entirety from the requestor under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 58.007(c) of the Family Code. However, to the extent the requestor is one of the juvenile offenders listed in the submitted report, the department must withhold the information we have marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 58.007(j)(1) of the Family Code and the information we have indicated under section 552.130 of the Government Code pursuant to section 58.007(j)(2) of the Family Code. The department must release the remaining information.
