Dear Mr. Davis:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 595279 (File No. 1600/66857).

The Collin County Constable Precinct 3 (the "constable's office"), which you represent, received a request for the body camera and dash camera video recordings pertaining to a specified incident. You argue pursuant to section 552.028 of the Government Code, the constable's office need not comply with the request for information. In the alternative, you claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.103 of the Government Code. We have considered the submitted arguments and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.028 of the Government Code provides the following:

(a) A governmental body is not required to accept or comply with a request for information from:

(1) an individual who is imprisoned or confined in a correctional facility; or

(2) an agent of that individual, other than that individual's attorney when the attorney is requesting information that is subject to disclosure under [the Act].

(b) This section does not prohibit a governmental body from disclosing to an individual described by Subsection (a)(1), or that individual's agent, information held by the governmental body pertaining to that individual.

(c) In this section, "correctional facility" means:

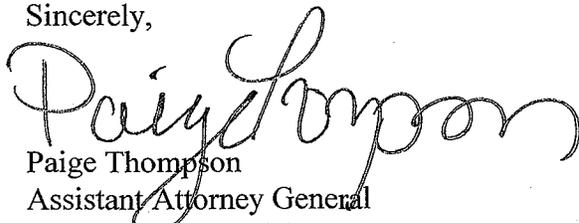

- (1) a secure correctional facility, as defined by Section 1.07, Penal Code;
- (2) a secure correctional facility and a secure detention facility, as defined by Section 51.02, Family Code; and
- (3) a place designated by the law of this state, another state, or the federal government for the confinement of a person arrested for, charged with, or convicted of a criminal offense.

Gov't Code § 552.028. The constable's office asserts, and the request for information reflects, the requestor is an inmate who is imprisoned or confined in a correctional facility. Upon review of the constable's office's argument and our review of the submitted documentation, we agree the requestor is an inmate who is imprisoned or confined in a correctional facility. Consequently, the constable's office need not accept or comply with the request for information pursuant to section 552.028.<sup>1</sup>
