Re: Request for any and all certified police records including arrest for a named individual; City ID 6229

Dear Ms. Brown:

The Office of the Attorney General has received your request for a ruling and assigned your request ID# 596991.

After reviewing your arguments and the submitted information, we have determined your request does not present a novel or complex issue. Thus, we are addressing your claims in a memorandum opinion. You claim the requested information must be withheld from the requestor. A request to compile an individual's criminal history implicates this person's privacy. We have concluded such a compilation is highly embarrassing information and is generally not of legitimate concern to the public. Therefore, to the extent you maintain law enforcement records depicting the named individual as a suspect, arrestee, or criminal defendant, you must withhold the requested information under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with common-law privacy. Next, you claim the marked information must be withheld from the requestor pursuant to section 552.130 of the Government Code. We agree you must withhold the marked motor vehicle record information in accordance with section 552.130 of the Government Code. Lastly, you must withhold the marked date of birth pursuant to section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with common-law privacy. Paxton v. City of Dallas, No. 03-13-00546-CV, 2015 WL 3394061, at *3 (Tex. App.—Austin May 22, 2015, pet. denied) (mem. op.).
