Ms. Elizabeth Dorsey
Assistant District Attorney
Waller County Criminal District Attorney's Office
645 12th Street
Hempstead, Texas 77445

OR2015-25503

Dear Ms. Dorsey:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 596406.

The Waller County District Attorney's Office (the "district attorney's office") received a request for information pertaining to a named individual, including incidents that occurred on two specified dates.¹ You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.108 of the Government Code. Additionally, you claim some of the requested information is not subject to the Act. We have considered your arguments and reviewed the submitted information.

You argue some of the requested information consists of judicial records not subject to the Act. The Act is applicable to information "written, produced, collected, assembled, or maintained under a law or ordinance or in connection with the transaction of official business: (1) by a governmental body[.]" Gov't Code § 552.002(a)(1). However, the Act's definition of “governmental body” “does not include the judiciary.” Id. § 552.003(1)(B). Information “collected, assembled, or maintained by or for the judiciary” is not subject to the Act but instead is “governed by rules adopted by the Supreme Court of Texas or by other applicable laws and rules.” Id. § 552.0035(a); cf. Open Records Decision No. 131 (1976) (applying statutory predecessor to judiciary exclusion under Gov’t Code § 552.003(1)(B) prior to enactment of Gov’t Code § 552.0035). You state some of the requested information is maintained by a Justice of the Peace. Therefore, we conclude this information is not subject to the Act and need not be released under the Act.

¹We note the district attorney's office sought and received clarification of the information requested. See Gov't Code § 552.222(b) (providing if request for information is unclear, governmental body may ask requestor to clarify request); see also City of Dallas v. Abbott, 304 S.W.3d 380, 387 (Tex. 2010) (holding that when a governmental entity, acting in good faith, requests clarification or narrowing of an unclear or over-broad request for public information, the ten-day period to request an attorney general ruling is measured from the date the request is clarified or narrowed).

Section 552.108(a)(2) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure information concerning an investigation that did not result in conviction or deferred adjudication. See Gov’t Code § 552.108(a)(2). A governmental body claiming section 552.108(a)(2) must demonstrate the requested information relates to a criminal investigation that concluded in a final result other than a conviction or deferred adjudication. See id. § 552.301(e)(1)(A) (governmental body must provide comments explaining why exceptions raised should apply to information requested). You state Exhibit B pertains to a criminal investigation that concluded in a result other than conviction or deferred adjudication. Based on this representation and our review, we agree section 552.108(a)(2) is applicable to Exhibit B.

However, section 552.108 does not except from disclosure basic information about an arrested person, an arrest, or a crime. Id. § 552.108(c). Basic information refers to the basic “front-page” offense and arrest information held to be public in Houston Chronicle Publishing Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975), writ ref’d n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976). See Open Records Decision No. 127 (1976) (summarizing types of information considered to be basic information). Thus, with the exception of the basic information, the district attorney’s office may withhold Exhibit B under section 552.108(a)(2) of the Government Code.²

In summary, the information maintained by the Justice of the Peace is not subject to the Act and need not be released under the Act. With the exception of the basic information, the district attorney’s office may withhold Exhibit B under section 552.108(a)(2) of the Government Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at <http://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/open/> ²As our ruling is dispositive, we need not address your remaining argument against disclosure of the submitted information.
