

KEN PAXTON
ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS

December 16, 2015

Ms. Laura Anne Coats
Assistant District Attorney
Dallas County District Attorney's Office
133 North Riverfront Boulevard, LB-19
Dallas, Texas 75207

OR2015-26499

Dear Ms. Coats:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 591036.

The Dallas County District Attorney's Office (the "district attorney's office") received a request for information related to a specified incident. You claim the submitted information is not subject to the Act, or in the alternative, is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101 and 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered your arguments and reviewed the submitted information.

The district attorney's office asserts the requested information is not subject to the Act because it consists of records obtained pursuant to a grand jury subpoena and is held by the district attorney's office as an agent of the grand jury. The judiciary is expressly excluded from the requirements of the Act. Gov't Code § 552.003(1)(B). This office has determined for purposes of the Act, a grand jury is a part of the judiciary, and therefore, not subject to the Act. See Open Records Decision No. 411 (1984). Further, records kept by a governmental body that is acting as an agent for a grand jury are considered records in the constructive possession of the grand jury, and are also not subject to the Act. See Open Records Decisions Nos. 513 (1988), 411, 398 (1983). Thus, to the extent the district attorney's office holds the information at issue as an agent of the grand jury, such information consists of records of the judiciary that are not subject to disclosure under the Act and the district attorney's office is not required to release that information in response to the instant request. To the extent the district attorney's office does not hold the information at issue as an agent of the grand jury, we will address the district attorney's arguments against its disclosure.

Section 552.108(a)(2) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure information concerning an investigation that concluded in a result other than conviction or deferred adjudication. Gov't Code § 552.108(a)(2). A governmental body claiming section 552.108(a)(2) must demonstrate the requested information relates to a criminal investigation that concluded in a final result other than a conviction or deferred adjudication. See id. § 552.301(e) (governmental body must provide comments explaining why exceptions raised should apply to information requested). The district attorney's office states the information at issue relates to a case that was no-billed by a grand jury, and, thus, did not result in conviction or deferred adjudication. Based on the this representation, we conclude section 552.108(a)(2) is applicable to the information at issue.

Section 552.108, however, does not except from disclosure basic information about an arrested person, an arrest, or a crime. Id. § 552.108(c). Basic information refers to the information held to be public in Houston Chronicle Publishing Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975), writ ref'd n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976). See Open Records Decision No. 127 (1976) (summarizing types of information made public by Houston Chronicle). Thus, with the exception of basic information, which must be released, the district attorney's office may withhold the information at issue under section 552.108(a)(2) of the Government Code.¹

In summary, to the extent the district attorney's office holds the submitted information obtained pursuant to the grand jury subpoena as an agent of the grand jury, such information consists of records of the judiciary that are not subject to disclosure under the Act and the district attorney's office is not required to release that information in response to the instant request. With the exception of basic information, which the district attorney's office must release, the district attorney's office may withhold the submitted information that is subject to the Act under section 552.108(a)(2) of the Government Code.

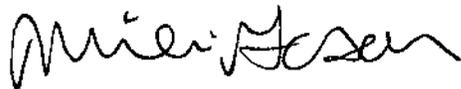

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at <http://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/open/>

¹As our ruling is dispositive, we need not address your remaining argument against disclosure.
