

KEN PAXTON
ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS

December 28, 2015

Ms. Jennifer Burnett
Office of the General Counsel
The University of Texas System
201 West Seventh Street
Austin, Texas 78701

OR2015-27125

Dear Ms. Burnett:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 591955.

The University of Texas at San Antonio (the "university") received a request for information relating to a specified incident. The university states it has released some of the requested information. The university states it will redact information pursuant to sections 552.130 and 552.147 of the Government Code.<sup>1</sup> The university claims some of the submitted information is not subject to the Act. The university also claims some of the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101, 552.102, and 552.117 of the Government Code. We have considered the university's arguments and reviewed the submitted information.

Initially, the university asserts the University of Texas Electronic Identification Numbers ("UTEIDs") contained in the submitted information are not subject to the Act. The Act applies only to “public information.” See Gov’t Code § 552.021. Section 552.002(a) defines “public information” as:

<sup>1</sup>We note section 552.130(c) of the Government Code allows a governmental body to redact the information described in section 552.130(a) without the necessity of seeking a decision from the attorney general. See Gov't Code § 552.130(c). If a governmental body redacts such information, it must notify the requestor in accordance with section 552.130(e). See id. § 552.130(d), (e). Section 552.147(b) of the Government Code authorizes a governmental body to redact a living person's social security number from public release without the necessity of requesting a decision from this office. See id. § 552.147(b).

[I]nformation that is written, produced, collected, assembled, or maintained under a law or ordinance or in connection with the transaction of official business:

(1) by a governmental body;

(2) for a governmental body and the governmental body:

(A) owns the information;

(B) has a right of access to the information; or

(C) spends or contributes public money for the purpose of writing, producing, collecting, assembling, or maintaining the information; or

(3) by an individual officer or employee of a governmental body in the officer’s or employee’s official capacity and the information pertains to official business of the governmental body.

Id. § 552.002(a). In Open Records Decision No. 581 (1990), this office determined that certain computer information, such as source codes, documentation information, and other computer programming, that has no significance other than its use as a tool for the maintenance, manipulation, or protection of public property is not the kind of information made public under section 552.021 of the Government Code. We understand an individual’s UTEID provides employees and students access to the university’s computer system, but does not consist of log-on information. We understand the UTEID is part of a two-part log in protocol that could access secure and sensitive employment and student records, as well as the potential to compromise high level functions. Accordingly, we find UTEIDs contained in the submitted information do not constitute public information under section 552.002 of the Government Code, are not subject to the Act, and need not be released to the requestor.

Next, the university acknowledges, and we agree, the submitted information includes a court-filed document subject to section 552.022 of the Government Code. Section 552.022(a)(17) provides for required public disclosure of “information that is also contained in a public court record[,]” unless the information is expressly made confidential under the Act or other law. Gov’t Code § 552.022(a)(17). Although the university raises section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with common-law privacy for the court-filed document, we note common-law privacy is not applicable to information contained in public records.

See Cox Broadcasting Corp. v. Cohn, 420 U.S. 469, 496 (1975) (action for invasion of privacy cannot be maintained where information is in public domain); Star-Telegram, Inc. v. Walker, 834 S.W.2d 54, 57 (Tex. 1992) (law cannot recall information once in public domain). Thus, the university may not withhold any portion of the court-filed document, which it has marked, under section 552.101 in conjunction with common-law privacy. As no other exceptions are raised for the court-filed document, the university must release it. However, we will address the university's arguments against disclosure of the remaining information at issue.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses laws that make criminal history record information ("CHRI") confidential. CHRI generated by the National Crime Information Center or by the Texas Crime Information Center is confidential under federal and state law. Title 28, part 20 of the Code of Federal Regulations governs the release of CHRI states obtain from the federal government or other states. Open Records Decision No. 565 at 7 (1990). The federal regulations allow each state to follow its individual law with respect to CHRI it generates. Id. at 10-12. Section 411.083 of the Government Code deems confidential CHRI the Department of Public Safety ("DPS") maintains, except DPS may disseminate this information as provided in chapter 411, subchapter F or subchapter E-1 of the Government Code. See Gov't Code § 411.083(a). Sections 411.083(b)(1) and 411.089(a) of the Government Code authorize a criminal justice agency to obtain CHRI; however, a criminal justice agency may not release CHRI except to another criminal justice agency for criminal justice purposes. See id. § 411.089(b)(1). Upon review, we find the information the university has marked constitutes confidential CHRI. This information must be withheld under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 411.083 of the Government Code.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code also encompasses the doctrine of common-law privacy. Indus. Found. v. Tex. Indus. Accident Bd., 540 S.W.2d 668, 685 (Tex. 1976). Under the common-law right of privacy, an individual has a right to be free from the publicizing of private affairs in which the public has no legitimate concern. Id. at 682. In considering whether a public citizen's date of birth is private, the Third Court of Appeals looked to the supreme court's rationale in Texas Comptroller of Public Accounts v. Attorney General of Texas, 354 S.W.3d 336 (Tex. 2010). Paxton v. City of Dallas, No. 03-13-00546-CV, 2015 WL 3394061, at *3 (Tex. App.—Austin May 22, 2015, pet. denied) (mem. op.). The supreme court concluded public employees' dates of birth are private under section 552.102 of the Government Code because the employees' privacy interest substantially outweighed the negligible public interest in disclosure.<sup>2</sup> Texas Comptroller, 354 S.W.3d at 347-48. Based on Texas Comptroller, the court of appeals concluded the privacy rights of public employees apply equally to public citizens, and thus, public citizens' dates of birth are also protected by common-law privacy pursuant to section 552.101. City of Dallas, 2015 WL 3394061, at *3. Thus, the university must withhold the dates of birth it has marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with common-law privacy.<sup>3</sup>

Section 552.117(a)(1) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure the home address and telephone number, emergency contact information, social security number, and family member information of a current or former employee or official of a governmental body who requests this information be kept confidential under section 552.024 of the Government Code. See Gov't Code § 552.117(a)(1). We note, however, section 552.117 applies only to records a governmental body is holding in an employment capacity. The submitted information is held by the university in a law enforcement context. Thus, section 552.117 is not applicable, and the university may not withhold this information on that basis.

In summary, the UTEIDs contained in the submitted information do not constitute public information under section 552.002 of the Government Code, are not subject to the Act, and need not be released to the requestor. The university must release the court-filed document, which it has marked, pursuant to section 552.022(a)(17) of the Government Code. The university must withhold the information it has marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 411.083 of the Government Code and the dates of birth it has marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with common-law privacy. The university must release the remaining information.

Finally, the university asks this office to issue a previous determination permitting it to withhold public citizens' dates of birth under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with common-law privacy. See Gov't Code § 552.301(a) (allowing governmental body to withhold information subject to previous determination); Open Records Decision No. 673 (2001). After due consideration, we have decided to grant the university's request on this matter. Therefore, this letter ruling authorizes the university to withhold the dates of birth of public citizens under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with common-law privacy. We note common-law privacy is a personal right that lapses at an individual's death. See Moore v. Charles B. Pierce Film Enters., Inc., 589 S.W.2d 489, 491 (Tex. App.—Texarkana 1979, writ ref'd n.r.e.); see also Open Records Decision Nos. 620 (1993), 272 (1981), 192 (1978). Therefore, this previous determination authorizes the university to withhold dates of birth of living individuals. This previous determination is not applicable to dates of birth belonging to deceased individuals. We also note a person or a person's authorized representative has a special right of access under section 552.023 of the Government Code to information that is protected from public disclosure by laws intended to protect the person's privacy interests. See Gov't Code

<sup>3</sup>As our ruling is dispositive, we need not address the university's remaining argument against disclosure of this information.

§ 552.023(a); Open Records Decision No. 481 at 4 (1987) (privacy theories not implicated when individual requests information concerning himself). Therefore, this previous determination is not applicable to dates of birth requested by a person or the authorized representative of a person whose date of birth is at issue. Furthermore, information filed with a court is not protected by common-law privacy. See Gov't Code § 552.022(a)(17); Star-Telegram v. Walker, 834 S.W.2d 54 (Tex. 1992) (common-law privacy not applicable to court-filed document). Accordingly, this previous determination is not applicable to dates of birth contained in court-filed documents. So long as the elements of law, fact, and circumstances do not change so as to no longer support the findings set forth above, the university need not ask for a decision from this office again with respect to this type of information. See ORD 673 at 7-8 (listing elements of second type of previous determination under Gov't Code § 552.301(a)).

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
