

KEN PAXTON
ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS

February 8, 2016

Ms. Cary Grace
Assistant City Attorney
Law Department
City of Austin
P.O. Box 1088
Austin, Texas 78767-8828

OR2016-02947

Dear Ms. Grace:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 597601 (Austin PIR Nos. 822461, 822466, 822489, 822495, 822726, 822826, and 822885).

The Austin Police Department (the "department") received seven requests for information related to a specified shooting of a public official. Three requestors seek all information related to the incident; three requestors seek only 9-1-1 call audio recordings related to the incident; and one requestor seeks only the associated police report. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.107(2) and 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted representative sample of information.<sup>1</sup>

Initially, we note some of the submitted information consists of court-filed documents subject to section 552.022(a)(17) of the Government Code. Section 552.022(a)(17) provides <sup>1</sup>This letter ruling assumes that the submitted representative sample of information is truly representative of the requested information as a whole. This ruling does not reach, and therefore does not authorize, the withholding of any other requested information to the extent that the other information is substantially different than that submitted to this office. See Gov't Code §§ 552.301(e)(1)(D), .302; Open Records Decision Nos. 499 at 6 (1988), 497 at 4 (1988).

for the required public disclosure of “information that is also contained in a public court record” unless it is “made confidential under [the Act] or other law[.]” Gov’t Code § 552.022(a)(17). Although you raise section 552.108 of the Government Code for this information, section 552.108 is a discretionary exception and does not make information confidential under the Act. See Open Records Decision Nos. 665 at 2 n.5 (2000) (discretionary exceptions generally), 663 at 5 (1999) (waiver of discretionary exceptions), 177 at 3 (1977) (statutory predecessor to section 552.108 subject to waiver). As such, section 552.108 does not make information confidential for the purposes of section 552.022. Therefore, the marked court-filed documents may not be withheld under section 552.108.

You also raise section 552.107(2) of the Government Code against disclosure of the information subject to section 552.022(a)(17). Section 552.107(2) allows a governmental body to withhold information if “a court by order has prohibited disclosure of the information.” Gov’t Code § 552.107(2). However, section 552.022(b) provides a court may not order a governmental body to withhold from public inspection any category of information described by section (a) unless the category of information is expressly made confidential under the Act or other law. Id. § 552.022(b). Because section 552.022(b) prohibits a court from ordering documents subject to section 552.022 be withheld, we conclude the department may not withhold the information subject to section 552.022(a)(17) under section 552.107(2) of the Government Code. Accordingly, as you raise no further exceptions to disclosure for the information subject to section 552.022(a)(17) of the Government Code, the department must release such information.

Next, we consider the applicability of the raised exceptions to the remaining information not subject to section 552.022(a)(17). Section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure “[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime . . . if . . . release of the information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime[.]” Id. § 552.108(a)(1). A governmental body claiming section 552.108(a)(1) must reasonably explain how and why the release of the requested information would interfere with law enforcement. See id. §§ 552.108(a)(1), .301(e)(1)(A); see also Ex parte Pruitt, 551 S.W.2d 706 (Tex. 1977). You state the remaining information pertains to an active criminal investigation or prosecution. Based on your representation and our review, we conclude the release of the information at issue would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime. See Houston Chronicle Publ’g Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975) (court delineates law enforcement interests that are present in active cases), writ ref’d n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976). Thus, section 552.108(a)(1) is applicable to the remaining information.

However, we note section 552.108 does not except from disclosure basic information about an arrested person, an arrest, or a crime. Gov’t Code § 552.108(c). Basic information refers to the information held to be public in Houston Chronicle. See 531 S.W.2d at 186-88; Open

Records Decision No. 127 (1976) (summarizing types of information considered to be basic information). Thus, with the exception of the basic information, which must be released, the department may withhold the remaining information under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code.<sup>2</sup>

In summary, the department must release the information we have marked under section 552.022(a)(17) of the Government Code to the respective requestors. With the exception of basic information, which must be released to the respective requestors, the department may withhold the remaining information under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/open/orl\_ruling\_info.shtml, or call the Office of the Attorney General's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839.
