ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS

Ms. Elizabeth Dorsey
Assistant District Attorney
Waller County Criminal District Attorney's Office
645 12th Street
Hempstead, Texas 77445

OR2016-05213

Dear Ms. Dorsey:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 600766.

The Waller County Sheriff's Office (the "sheriff's office") received a request for information pertaining to a specified incident. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Initially, you inform us there was an unauthorized release of some of the submitted information. Section 552.007 of the Government Code provides that if a governmental body voluntarily released information to any member of the public, the governmental body may not withhold such information from further disclosure unless its public release is expressly prohibited by law or the information is confidential under law. See Gov't Code § 552.007; Open Records Decision No. 518 at 3 (1989). However, we note a governmental body is not precluded from invoking an exception to further public disclosure of information that has been released through no official action and against the wishes and policy of the governmental body. See Open Records Decision No. 376 at 2 (1983); see also Open Records Decision No. 387 at (3) (1983) (information that is not voluntarily released by a governmental body, but nevertheless comes into another party's possession, is not henceforth automatically available to everyone). You state, and provide documentation demonstrating, the release of the information at issue was unauthorized and against the wishes and policy of the sheriff's office. You state the sheriff's office is investigating this unauthorized release. Because the sheriff's office states it did not voluntarily release the information at issue, we conclude the sheriff's office did not waive its claim under section 552.108 of the Government Code.

Section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure “[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime . . . if . . . release of the information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime[.]” Gov’t Code § 552.108(a)(1). A governmental body claiming section 552.108(a)(1) must reasonably explain how and why the release of the requested information would interfere with law enforcement. See id. §§ 552.108(a)(1), .301(e)(1)(A); see also Ex parte Pruitt, 551 S.W.2d 706 (Tex. 1977). You state the submitted information pertains to a pending criminal investigation. Based on your representation, we conclude the release of the submitted information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime. See Houston Chronicle Publ’g Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975) (court delineates law enforcement interests that are present in active cases), writ ref’d n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976). Thus, section 552.108(a)(1) is applicable to the submitted information.

However, section 552.108 does not except from disclosure basic information about an arrested person, an arrest, or a crime. Gov’t Code § 552.108(c). Basic information refers to the information held to be public in Houston Chronicle. See 531 S.W.2d at 186-88; Open Records Decision No. 127 (1976) (summarizing types of information considered to be basic information). We note basic information does not include motor vehicle record information encompassed by section 552.130 of the Government Code or dates of birth. See ORD 127 at 3-4. Thus, with the exception of basic information, which must be released, the sheriff's office may withhold the submitted information under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
