Ms. June B. Harden
Assistant Attorney General
Public Information Coordinator
Office of the Attorney General
P.O. Box 12548

OR2016-08845

Dear Ms. Harden:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 606409 (PIR No. 16-43392).

The Office of the Attorney General (the "OAG") received a request for information pertaining to a specified arrest. You state the OAG will redact information pursuant to sections 552.130(c) and 552.147(b) of the Government Code and certain information subject to section 552.139 of the Government Code in accordance with Open Records Letter No. 2011-18124 (2011).¹ You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure ¹Section 552.130(c) of the Government Code allows a governmental body to redact the information described in section 552.130(a) without the necessity of seeking a decision from the attorney general. See Gov't Code § 552.130(c). If a governmental body redacts such information, it must notify the requestor in accordance with section 552.130(e). See id. § 552.130(d), (e). Section 552.147(b) of the Government Code authorizes a governmental body to redact a living person's social security number from public release without the necessity of requesting a decision from this office. See id. § 552.147(b). In Open Records Letter No. 2011-18124 this office issued the OAG a previous determination authorizing it to withhold an employee's user ID under section 552.139 of the Government Code without the necessity of requesting a decision from this office.

under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted representative sample of information.²

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure “information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision.” Gov’t Code § 552.101. This section encompasses information made confidential by section 261.201 of the Family Code, which provides, in relevant part, as follows:

(a) [T]he following information is confidential, is not subject to public release under [the Act], and may be disclosed only for purposes consistent with this code and applicable federal or state law or under rules adopted by an investigating agency:

(1) a report of alleged or suspected abuse or neglect made under [chapter 261 of the Family Code] and the identity of the person making the report; and

(2) except as otherwise provided in this section, the files, reports, records, communications, audiotapes, videotapes, and working papers used or developed in an investigation under [chapter 261 of the Family Code] or in providing services as a result of an investigation.

Fam. Code § 261.201(a). We understand the submitted information consists of information used or developed in a child abuse investigation that is maintained by the OAG’s Law Enforcement Division. Accordingly, we find this information falls within the scope of section 261.201 of the Family Code. See id. §§ 101.003(a) (defining “child” for the purposes of this section as a person under 18 years of age who is not and has not been married or who has not had the disabilities of minority removed for general purposes); 261.001(1) (defining “abuse” for purposes of chapter 261 of the Family Code). As we have no indication the OAG has adopted a rule governing the release of this type of information, we assume no such regulation exists. Given that assumption, and based on our review, we conclude the submitted information is confidential pursuant to section 261.201(a) of the Family Code, and the OAG must withhold it under section 552.101 of the Government Code on that basis.³

²We assume the representative sample of records submitted to this office is truly representative of the requested records as a whole. See Open Records Decision Nos. 499 (1988), 497 (1988). This open records letter does not reach, and therefore does not authorize the withholding of, any other requested records to the extent that those records contain substantially different types of information than that submitted to this office.

³As our ruling is dispositive, we need not address your remaining arguments.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/open/orl_ruling_info.shtml, or call the Office of the Attorney General's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. Questions concerning the allowable charges for providing public information under the Act may be directed to the Office of the Attorney General, toll free, at (888) 672-6787.

Sincerely,
