

KEN PAXTON
ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS

April 22, 2016

The Honorable Scott M. Felton
County Judge
McLennan County Judge's Office
P.O. Box 1728
Waco, Texas 76703-1728

OR2016-08966

Dear Judge Felton:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 606812.

The McLennan County Judge's Office and the McLennan County Information Technology Director (collectively, the "county") received a request for all information stored on a specified appliance that belongs to a named company. You claim some of the submitted information is not subject to the Act. You claim some of the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered your arguments and reviewed the submitted representative sample of information.¹

The Act is applicable to information "written, produced, collected, assembled, or maintained under a law or ordinance or in connection with the transaction of official business by a governmental body." Gov't Code § 552.002(a)(1). However, the Act's definition of "governmental body" does not include the judiciary. Id. § 552.003(1)(B). Information "written, produced, collected, assembled, or maintained by or for the judiciary" is not subject ¹We assume the "representative sample" of records submitted to this office is truly representative of the requested records as a whole. See Open Records Decision Nos. 499 (1988), 497 (1988). This open records letter does not reach, and therefore does not authorize the withholding of, any other requested records to the extent that those records contain substantially different types of information than that submitted to this office.

to the Act but, instead, is “governed by rules adopted by the Supreme Court of Texas or by other applicable laws and rules.” Id. § 552.0035(a); cf. Open Records Decision No. 131 (1976) (applying statutory predecessor to judiciary exclusion under Government Code section 552.003(1)(B) prior to enactment of Government Code section 552.0035). Therefore, the Act neither authorizes information held by the judiciary to be withheld, nor does it require such information be disclosed. See Open Records Decision No. 25 (1974). You state the submitted information in Exhibit D consists of court filings maintained by the county’s district clerk’s office on behalf of the judiciary. We agree this information consists of records of the judiciary that are not subject to release under the Act, and the county need not release this information in response to the request.²

Section 552.101 of the Government Code exempts from disclosure “information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision.” Gov’t Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 of the Government Code encompasses the Medical Practice Act (the “MPA”), subtitle B of title 3 of the Occupations Code. Medical records are confidential under section 159.002 of the MPA, which provides in part:

- (a) A communication between a physician and a patient, relative to or in connection with any professional services as a physician to the patient, is confidential and privileged and may not be disclosed except as provided by this chapter.
- (b) A record of the identity, diagnosis, evaluation, or treatment of a patient by a physician that is created or maintained by a physician is confidential and privileged and may not be disclosed except as provided by this chapter.
- (c) A person who receives information from a confidential communication or record as described by this chapter, other than a person listed in Section 159.004 who is acting on the patient's behalf, may not disclose the information except to the extent that disclosure is consistent with the authorized purposes for which the information was first obtained.

Occ. Code § 159.002(a)-(c). Information subject to the MPA includes both medical records and information obtained from those medical records. See id. §§ 159.002, .004; Open Records Decision No. 598 (1991). This office has concluded the protection afforded by ²We note records of the judiciary may be public under other sources of law. See Gov’t Code § 29.007(d)(4) (complaints filed with municipal court clerk), (f) (municipal court clerks shall perform duties prescribed by law for county court clerk); Local Gov’t Code § 191.006 (records belonging to office of county clerk shall be open to public unless access restricted by law or court order); see also Star-Telegram, Inc. v. Walker, 834 S.W.2d 54, 57 (Tex. 1992) (documents filed with courts are generally considered public and must be released); Attorney General Opinions DM-166 (1992) at 2-3 (public has general right to inspect and copy judicial records), H-826 (1976); Open Records Decision No. 25 (1974).

section 159.002 extends only to records created by either a physician or someone under the supervision of a physician. See Open Records Decision Nos. 487 (1987), 370 (1983), 343 (1982). Upon review, we find Exhibit E constitutes records of the identity, diagnosis, evaluation, or treatment of patients by a physician that were created or are maintained by a physician. Accordingly, the county must withhold Exhibit E under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with the MPA.

In summary, Exhibit D is not subject to the Act, and the county need not release this information in response to the request. The county must withhold Exhibit E under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with the MPA.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
