ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS

May 25, 2016

Ms. Sandy Colley
Clerk
County of Milam
512 North Jefferson, Suite A
Cameron, Texas 76520

OR2016-12015

Dear Ms. Colley:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 612058.

The Milam County Sheriff's Office (the "sheriff's office") received a request for information pertaining to a specified incident. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101 and 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. This section encompasses information protected by other statutes, such as section 261.201 of the Family Code, which provides, in part, as follows:

(a) [T]he following information is confidential, is not subject to public release under Chapter 552, Government Code, and may be disclosed only for purposes consistent with this code and applicable federal or state law or under rules adopted by an investigating agency:

(1) a report of alleged or suspected abuse or neglect made under this chapter and the identity of the person making the report; and

(2) except as otherwise provided in this section, the files, reports, records, communications, audiotapes, videotapes, and working papers used or developed in an investigation under this chapter or in providing services as a result of an investigation.

Fam. Code § 261.201(a). Upon review, we find the submitted information was used or developed in an investigation of alleged or suspected child abuse or neglect. See id. § 261.001(1), (4) (defining “abuse” and “neglect” for purposes of chapter 261 of the Family Code), see also id. § 101.003(a) (defining “child” for purposes of chapter 261 of Family Code). Accordingly, we find this information is subject to chapter 261 of the Family Code. You have not indicated the sheriff’s office has adopted a rule that governs the release of this type of information. Therefore, we assume no such regulation exists. Given that assumption, the information at issue is confidential pursuant to section 261.201 of the Family Code. See Open Records Decision No. 440 at 2 (1986) (predecessor statute). Accordingly, the sheriff’s office must generally withhold the information at issue from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code.

However, section 261.201 provides information encompassed by subsection (a) may be disclosed “for purposes consistent with [the Family Code] and applicable federal or state law.” Fam. Code § 261.201(a). Subchapter E of chapter 264 of the Family Code concerns the establishment and duties of children’s advocacy centers. See id. §§ 264.401-.411. Section 264.405 of the Family Code directs children’s advocacy centers to provide services for victims of child abuse and their families. Id. § 264.405. Furthermore, section 264.408(c) of the Family Code provides “a law enforcement agency . . . may share with a [children’s advocacy] center information that is confidential under Section 261.201 as needed to provide services” under chapter 264 of the Family Code. Id. § 264.408(c).

In this instance, the requestor states she is a representative of Court Appointed Special Advocates of Central Texas (“CASA”). However, the requestor does not state whether she seeks the information at issue in order to provide services under chapter 264 of the Family Code. Therefore, we must rule conditionally. If the sheriff’s office determines the information is needed to provide services under chapter 264 of the Family Code, then the sheriff’s office may release the information to this requestor pursuant to section 264.408(c). We note information shared with or provided to CASA under section 264.408(c) retains its confidentiality under section 261.201. See id. If, however, the sheriff’s office does not determine the information is needed for services under chapter 264, then it may not release the information on that ground, and the sheriff’s office must withhold the information under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 261.201 of the Family Code.¹

¹As our ruling is dispositive, we need not address your remaining arguments against disclosure.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.
