OR2016-12317

Dear Ms. Burnett:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 612112 (OGC# 168275, 168807, 168830, 168833).

The University of Texas Health Science Center at Houston (the "university") received four requests from two requestors for a specified application and curriculum vitae submitted by a named individual. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted representative sample of information.¹

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses information made confidential by other statutes, such as section 161.032 of the Health and Safety Code. Section 161.032 of the Health and Safety Code addresses the broad category of medical committees and provides in relevant part:

¹We assume that the "representative sample" of records submitted to this office is truly representative of the requested records as a whole. See Open Records Decision Nos. 499 (1988), 497 (1988). This open records letter does not reach, and therefore does not authorize the withholding of, any other requested records to the extent that those records contain substantially different types of information than that submitted to this office.

(a) The records and proceedings of a medical committee are confidential and are not subject to court subpoena.

(c) Records, information, or reports of a medical committee, medical peer review committee, or compliance officer and records, information, or reports provided by a medical committee, medical peer review committee, or compliance officer to the governing body of a public hospital, hospital district, or hospital authority are not subject to disclosure under [the Act].

...

(f) This section and Subchapter A, Chapter 160, Occupations Code, do not apply to records made or maintained in the regular course of business by a hospital, health maintenance organization, medical organization, university medical center or health science center, hospital district, hospital authority, or extended care facility.

Health & Safety Code § 161.032(a), (c), (f). For purposes of this confidentiality provision, a “medical committee” includes any committee, including a joint committee, of . . . a hospital [or] a medical organization [or] a university medical school or health science center [or] a hospital district [.]” Id. § 161.031(a). Section 161.0315 provides in relevant part that “[t]he governing body of a hospital, medical organization, university medical school or health science center [or] hospital district . . . may form . . . a medical committee, as defined by section 161.031, to evaluate medical and health care services[.]” Id. § 161.0315(a).

The precise scope of the “medical committee” provision has been the subject of a number of judicial decisions. See, e.g., Memorial Hosp.—The Woodlands v. McCown, 927 S.W.2d 1 (Tex. 1996); Barnes v. Whittington, 751 S.W.2d 493 (Tex. 1988); Jordan v. Fourth Supreme Judicial Dist., 701 S.W.2d 644 (Tex. 1986). These cases establish that “documents generated by the committee in order to conduct open and thorough review” are confidential. This protection extends “to documents that have been prepared by or at the direction of the committee for committee purposes.” Jordan, 701 S.W.2d at 647-48. Protection does not extend to documents “gratuitously submitted to a committee” or “created without committee impetus and purpose.” Id. at 648; see also Open Records Decision No. 591 (1991) (construing, among other statutes, statutory predecessor to section 161.032).

Further, section 161.032 does not make confidential “records made or maintained in the regular course of business by a . . . university medical center or health science center[.]” Health & Safety Code § 161.032(f); see also McCown, 927 S.W.2d at 10 (stating reference to statutory predecessor to section 160.007 of the Occupations Code in section 161.032 of the Health and Safety Code is clear signal records should be accorded same treatment under both statutes in determining if they were made in ordinary course of business). The phrase “records made or maintained in the regular course of business” has been construed to mean records that are neither created nor obtained in connection with a medical committee’s deliberative proceedings. See McCown, 927 S.W.2d at 9-10.

You state the submitted information was submitted to and obtained by the Faculty Appointment, Promotion, and Tenure Committee as part of its review process for evaluating the credentials and qualifications of faculty appointments, promotions, and tenure. You state the submitted information was also submitted to and obtained by the Medical School Dean Search Committee as part of its evaluation of credentials and qualifications of candidates for Dean of the university’s medical school. You further state the submitted information was submitted to and obtained by the Peer Review Committee for the Department of Pediatrics at the university’s medical school as part of its annual review process. You state the core function of these committees is to provide guidance that impacts staffing and medical care. We agree the committees are “medical committees” for purposes of section 161.031. You state the submitted information was prepared at the direction of the committees and for committee purposes. Upon review, we conclude the university must withhold the submitted information under section 552.101 in conjunction with section 161.032 of the Health and Safety Code.
