

KEN PAXTON
ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS

June 8, 2016

Ms. Yahitza Nunez
Assistant Criminal District Attorney
Hays County District Attorney's Office
712 South Stagecoach Trail, Suite 2057
San Marcos, Texas 78666

OR2016-13069

Dear Ms. Nunez:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 613473 (Ref. No. 16-0230).

The Hays County District Attorney's Office (the "district attorney's office") received a request for information pertaining to specified arrest. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted representative sample of information.¹

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. This section encompasses information protected by other statutes. Section 261.201 of the Family Code provides, in relevant part, as follows:

(a) [T]he following information is confidential, is not subject to public release under Chapter 552, Government Code, and may be disclosed only for ¹We assume the "representative sample" of records submitted to this office is truly representative of the requested records as a whole. See Open Records Decision Nos. 499 (1988), 497 (1988). This open records letter does not reach, and therefore does not authorize the withholding of, any other requested records to the extent those records contain substantially different types of information than that submitted to this office.

purposes consistent with this code and applicable federal or state law or under rules adopted by an investigating agency:

- (1) a report of alleged or suspected abuse or neglect made under this chapter and the identity of the person making the report; and
- (2) except as otherwise provided in this section, the files, reports, records, communications, audiotapes, videotapes, and working papers used or developed in an investigation under this chapter or in providing services as a result of an investigation.

Fam. Code § 261.201(a). The submitted information consists of a report of alleged or suspected child abuse or neglect. See id. §§ 101.003(a) (defining “child” for purposes of this section as person under 18 years of age who is not and has not been married or who has not had the disabilities of minority removed for general purposes), 261.001(1), (4) (defining “abuse” and “neglect” for purposes of chapter 261 of the Family Code). Accordingly, we find the submitted information is subject to section 261.201 of the Family Code. As you do not indicate the district attorney’s office has adopted a rule that governs the release of this type of information, we assume no such rule exists. Given that assumption, we conclude the submitted information is generally confidential under section 261.201 of the Family Code.

However, section 261.201 provides information encompassed by subsection (a) may be disclosed “for purposes consistent with [the Family Code] and applicable federal or state law.” Fam. Code § 261.201(a). Subchapter E of chapter 264 of the Family Code concerns the establishment and duties of children’s advocacy centers. See id. §§ 264.401-411. Section 264.405 of the Family Code directs children’s advocacy centers to provide services for victims of child abuse and their families. Id. § 264.405. Furthermore, section 264.408(c) of the Family Code provides “a law enforcement agency . . . may share with a [children’s advocacy] center information that is confidential under Section 261.201 as needed to provide services” under chapter 264 of the Family Code. Id. § 264.408(c).

In this instance, the requestor states she is a representative of Court Appointed Special Advocates of Central Texas (“CASA”). However, the requestor does not state whether she seeks the requested report in order to provide services under chapter 264 of the Family Code. Therefore, we must rule conditionally. If the district attorney’s office determines the information is needed to provide services under chapter 264 of the Family Code, then the district attorney’s office must release the submitted information to this requestor pursuant to section 264.408(c).² We note information shared with or provided to CASA under section 264.408(c) retains its confidentiality under section 261.201. See id. If, however, the district attorney's office determines the information is not needed for services under chapter 264, then it may not release the information on that ground, and the district attorney's office must withhold the submitted information under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 261.201 of the Family Code.

²Although you also raise section 552.108 of the Government Code for the submitted information, the requestor’s specific statutory right of access prevails over the general exceptions in the Act. See Open Records Decision Nos. 613 at 4 (1993) (exceptions in Act cannot impinge on statutory right of access to information), 451 (1986) (specific statutory right of access provisions overcome general exceptions to disclosure under the Act).

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/open/orl_ruling_info.shtml, or call the Office of the Attorney General's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839.
