ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS

June 15, 2016

Mr. Fernando C. Gomez
Vice Chancellor and General Counsel
Texas State University System
208 East 10th Street Suite 600
Austin, Texas 78701-2407

OR2016-13545

Dear Mr. Gomez:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 614854 (ORR# 16030.9).

Texas State University (the "university") received three requests from different requestors for the bid tab results and the winning bidder's pricing for a specified request for proposals.<sup>1</sup> Although you take no position as to whether the submitted information is excepted under the Act, you state release of the submitted information may implicate the proprietary interests of RACO Industries ("RACO"); Lamination Services, Inc. ("LSI"); IRIS Ltd., Inc. ("IRIS"); One Source Industries ("One Source"); IdentiSys, Inc. ("IdentiSys"); Id Edge, Inc. ("ID Edge"); and Fullidentity.com, Inc. ("Fullidentity"). Accordingly, you state, and provide documentation showing, you notified RACO, LSI, IRIS, One Source, IdentiSys, ID Edge, and Fullidentity of the request for information and of their right to submit arguments to this office as to why the submitted information should not be released. See Gov't Code § 552.305(d); see also Open Records Decision No. 542 (1990) (statutory predecessor to section 552.305 permits governmental body to rely on interested third party to raise and explain applicability of exception in the Act in certain circumstances). We have reviewed the submitted information.

<sup>1</sup>You state the university sought and received clarification of the information requested by one of the requestors. See Gov't Code § 552.222 (providing if request for information is unclear, governmental body may ask requestor to clarify request); see also City of Dallas v. Abbott, 304 S.W.3d 380, 387 (Tex. 2010) (holding that when a governmental entity, acting in good faith, requests clarification or narrowing of an unclear or overbroad request for information, the ten-day period to request an attorney general ruling is measured from the date the request is clarified or narrowed).

An interested third party is allowed ten business days after the date of its receipt of the governmental body's notice under section 552.305(d) to submit its reasons, if any, as to why information relating to that party should be withheld from public disclosure. See Gov't Code § 552.305(d)(2)(B). As of the date of this letter, we have not received comments from RACO, LSI, IRIS, One Source, IdentiSys, ID Edge, or Fullidentity explaining why the submitted information should not be released. Therefore, we have no basis to conclude RACO, LSI, IRIS, One Source, IdentiSys, ID Edge, or Fullidentity has a protected proprietary interest in the submitted information. See id. § 552.110; Open Records Decision Nos. 661 at 5-6 (1999) (to prevent disclosure of commercial or financial information, party must show by specific factual evidence, not conclusory or generalized allegations, that release of requested information would cause that party substantial competitive harm), 552 at 5 (1990) (party must establish prima facie case that information is trade secret), 542 at 3. Accordingly, the university may not withhold the submitted information on the basis of any proprietary interest RACO, LSI, IRIS, One Source, IdentiSys, ID Edge, or Fullidentity may have in the information. As no exceptions to disclosure have been raised, the university must release the submitted information.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/open/orl\_ruling\_info.shtml, or call the Office of the Attorney General's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. Questions concerning the allowable charges for providing public information under the Act may be directed to the Office of the Attorney General, toll free, at (888) 672-6787.

Sincerely,

Claire V. Morris Sloan
Assistant Attorney General
