Dear Ms. Harden:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 617126 (PIR No. 16-43997).

The Office of the Attorney General (the "OAG") received a request for information regarding a specified claim under the Crime Victims' Compensation Program. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

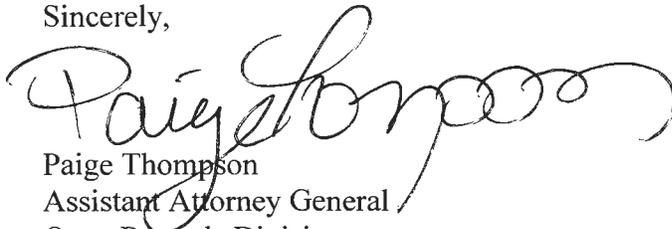

Section 552.108(a) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime . . . if: (1) release of the information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime[.]" Gov't Code § 552.108(a)(1). By its terms, section 552.108 applies only to a law enforcement agency or a prosecutor. This office has concluded, however, that where an incident involving alleged criminal conduct is still under active investigation or prosecution, section 552.108 may be invoked by any proper custodian of information that relates to the incident. See Open Records Decision Nos. 474 at 4-5 (1987), 372 (1983). Where a non-law enforcement agency has custody of information relating to the pending case of a law enforcement agency, the custodian of records may withhold the information if it provides this office with a demonstration that the information relates to a pending case and a representation from the law enforcement agency that it wishes to have the information withheld.

The OAG states the submitted information consists of an offense report of the Dallas Police Department (the “department”) that is maintained by the Crime Victims’ Compensation Division of the OAG as part of the requestor’s claim file. The OAG further states the department asks the OAG to withhold the submitted information from disclosure so as not to interfere with the department’s ongoing criminal investigation. Based on these representations and our review, we agree release of the submitted information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime. See Houston Chronicle Publ’g Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975) (court delineates law enforcement interests that are present in active cases), writ ref’d n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976). Accordingly, section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code is applicable to the submitted information, and the OAG may withhold it under section 552.108(a)(1) on behalf of the department.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. Paige Thompson
