

KEN PAXTON
ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS

July 8, 2016

Ms. Donna Madrid
City Secretary
City of Colorado City
P.O. Box 912
Colorado City, Texas 79512

OR2016-15485

Dear Ms. Madrid:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 619402.

The Colorado City Police Department (the "department") received a request for information pertaining to 9-1-1 calls involving a named individual for a specified period of time. The department claims the requested information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the claimed exception and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses section 58.007 of the Family Code, which makes confidential juvenile law enforcement records relating to conduct that occurred on or after September 1, 1997. See Fam. Code § 58.007(c). Section 58.007 provides, in part, the following:

(c) Except as provided by Subsection (d), law enforcement records and files concerning a child and information stored, by electronic means or otherwise, concerning the child from which a record or file could be generated may not be disclosed to the public and shall be:

(1) if maintained on paper or microfilm, kept separate from adult files and records;

(2) if maintained electronically in the same computer system as records or files relating to adults, be accessible under controls that are separate and distinct from controls to access electronic data concerning adults; and

(3) maintained on a local basis only and not sent to a central state or federal depository, except as provided by Subchapters B, D, and E.

(e) Law enforcement records and files concerning a child may be inspected or copied by a juvenile justice agency as that term is defined by Section 58.101, a criminal justice agency as that term is defined by Section 411.082, Government Code, the child, and the child's parent or guardian.

Id. § 58.007(c), (e). Upon review, we find report numbers 20160216, 15000977, 15000983, and 15002129 involve alleged juvenile delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision that occurred after September 1, 1997. See id. §§ 51.02(2) (for purposes of section 58.007(c), "child" means person who is ten years of age or older and under seventeen years of age when conduct occurred), .03(a), (b) (defining "delinquent conduct" and "conduct indicating a need for supervision"). Therefore, these reports are confidential under section 58.007(c) of the Family Code. However, the requestor is a parent of the juvenile offender at issue. Thus, the department may not withhold these reports under section 552.101 of the Government Code on that ground. See id. § 58.007(e). We also find the remaining information does not involve alleged juvenile delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision that occurred after September 1, 1997. See id. §§ 51.02(2) (for purposes of section 58.007(c), "child" means person who is ten years of age or older and under seventeen years of age when conduct occurred), .03(a), (b) (defining "delinquent conduct" and "conduct indicating a need for supervision"). Thus, the remaining information is not confidential under section 58.007(c) and the department may not withhold it under section 552.101 of the Government Code on that ground.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code also encompasses section 261.201 of the Family Code, which provides, in relevant part, as follows:

(a) [T]he following information is confidential, is not subject to public release under [the Act] and may be disclosed only for purposes consistent with this code and applicable federal or state law or under rules adopted by an investigating agency:

(1) a report of alleged or suspected abuse or neglect made under this chapter and the identity of the person making the report; and

(2) except as otherwise provided in this section, the files, reports, records, communications, audiotapes, videotapes, and working papers used or developed in an investigation under this chapter or in providing services as a result of an investigation.

(k) Notwithstanding Subsection (a), an investigating agency, other than the [Texas Department of Family and Protective Services] or the Texas Juvenile Justice Department, on request, shall provide to the parent, managing conservator, or other legal representative of a child who is the subject of reported abuse or neglect, or to the child if the child is at least 18 years of age, information concerning the reported abuse or neglect that would otherwise be confidential under this section. The investigating agency shall withhold information under this subsection if the parent, managing conservator, or other legal representative of the child requesting the information is alleged to have committed the abuse or neglect.

(l) Before a child or a parent, managing conservator, or other legal representative of a child may inspect or copy a record or file concerning the child under Subsection (k), the custodian of the record or file must redact:

(2) any information that is excepted from required disclosure under [the Act], or other law[.]

Fam. Code § 261.201(a), (k), (l)(2). Upon review we find report numbers 20150632, 20150645, 20160216, 15000977, 15000819, 16000473, and 16000491 were used or developed in investigations of alleged or suspected child abuse under chapter 261 of the Family Code. See id. §§ 101.003(a) (defining “child” for purposes of section 261.201), 261.001(1) (defining “abuse” for purposes of section 261.201). Thus, these reports are within the scope of section 261.201(a). The requestor is not a parent of the victim at issue in report number 20160216. The department does not indicate it has adopted a rule that governs the release of this type of information. Therefore, we assume no such rule exists. Given that assumption, the department must withhold report number 20160216 under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 261.201(a) of the Family Code. See Open Records Decision No. 440 at 2 (1986) (predecessor statute). However, the requestor is a parent of the child victim in the remaining reports, and this individual is not alleged to have committed the suspected abuse. Thus, the department may not withhold these reports from the requestor on the basis of section 261.201(a). See id. § 261.201(k). Accordingly, the department must release the remaining information.<sup>1</sup>

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
