Ms. Shannon Montgomery
Executive Secretary/Records Analyst
Town of Trophy Club
100 Municipal Drive
Trophy Club, Texas 76262

OR2016-16468

Dear Ms. Montgomery:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 619321.

The Town of Trophy Club (the "town") received a request for a specified incident report. You state you have released some information to the requestor. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101 and 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.108(a) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime . . . if: (1) release of the information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime." Gov't Code § 552.108(a)(1). Generally, a governmental body claiming section 552.108(a)(1) must explain how and why the release of the requested information would interfere with law enforcement. See id. §§ 552.108(a)(1), .301(e)(1)(A); see also Ex parte Pruitt, 551 S.W.2d 706 (Tex. 1977). You state the submitted information relates to an ongoing criminal investigation, and release of that information would interfere with the investigation and prosecution of the case. Based upon this representation, we conclude the release of the submitted information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime. See Houston Chronicle Publ'g Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975) (court delineates law enforcement interests that are present in active cases), writ ref'd n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976). Thus, section 552.108(a)(1) is applicable to the submitted information.

Section 552.108, however, does not except from disclosure basic information about an arrested person, an arrest, or a crime. Gov't Code § 552.108(c). Basic information refers to the information held to be public in Houston Chronicle, and includes, among other items, a detailed description of the offense. See 531 S.W.2d at 186-88; Open Records Decision No. 127 (1976) (summarizing the types of information considered to be basic information). Thus, with the exception of basic information, the town may withhold the submitted information under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code.<sup>1</sup>

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure “information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision.” Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses information protected by other statutes, such as section 21.12 of the Penal Code. Section 21.12(a) provides a public or private primary or secondary school employee commits an offense if the employee “engages in sexual contact, sexual intercourse, or deviate sexual intercourse with a person who is enrolled in a public or private secondary school at which the employee works[.]” Penal Code § 21.12(a)(1). Further, section 21.12(d) provides “[t]he name of a person who is enrolled in a public or private primary or secondary school and involved in an improper relationship with an educator as provided by Subsection (a) may not be released to the public and is not public information under [the Act].” Id. § 21.12(d). The submitted information pertains to an investigation of an alleged improper relationship between a public school employee and a student. See id. § 21.12(a). Therefore, in releasing basic information, the town must withhold the student victim's name under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 21.12(d) of the Penal Code.<sup>2</sup>

In summary, with the exception of basic information, the town may withhold the submitted information under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code. In releasing basic information, the town must withhold the student victim's name under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 21.12(d) of the Penal Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.
