Dear Ms. Sheely:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 621978.

The Travis County District Attorney's Office (the "district attorney's office") received a request for all information pertaining to a specified grand jury. You state you have released some information to the requestor. You claim the submitted information is not subject to the Act. Alternatively, you claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the submitted arguments and reviewed the submitted representative sample of information.¹

You assert the information at issue constitutes records of the judiciary. The Act applies only to information that is "written, produced, collected, assembled, or maintained under a law or ordinance or in connection with the transaction of official business" by a governmental body. Gov't Code § 552.002(a)(1). However, the Act's definition of "governmental body" "does not include the judiciary." See id. § 552.003(1)(B). Information that is "collected, assembled or maintained by or for the judiciary" is not subject to the Act. Id. § 552.0035(a); see also Tex. Sup. Ct. R. 12. Consequently, records of the judiciary need not be released under the Act. See Attorney General Opinion DM466 (1992). But see Benavides v. Lee, 665 S.W.2d 151 (Tex. App.—San Antonio 1983, no writ); Open Records Decision No. 646 at 4 (1996) ("function that a governmental entity performs determines whether the entity falls within the judiciary exception to the . . . Act."). This office has determined a grand jury, for ¹We assume the "representative sample" of records submitted to this office is truly representative of the requested records as a whole. See Open Records Decision Nos. 499 (1988), 497 (1988). This open records letter does not reach, and therefore does not authorize the withholding of, any other requested records to the extent that those records contain substantially different types of information than that submitted to this office.

purposes of the Act, is a part of the judiciary and is, therefore, not subject to the Act. See Open Records Decision No, 411(1984). Further, records kept by another person or entity acting as an agent for a grand jury are considered to be records in the constructive possession of the grand jury and, therefore, are not subject to the Act. See Open Records Decisions Nos. 513 (1988), 398 (1983). But see ORD 513 at 4 (defining limits of judiciary exclusion). However, the fact that information collected or prepared by another person or entity is submitted to the grand jury does not necessarily mean such information is in the grand jury's constructive possession when the same information is also held in the other person's or entity's own capacity. Information held by another person or entity but not produced at the direction of the grand jury may well be protected under one of the Act's specific exceptions to disclosure, but such information is not excluded from the reach of the Act by the judiciary exclusion. See id.

You explain the information at issue is held by the district attorney's office on behalf of the grand jury. You state the information is not held by the district attorney's office for any other purpose. Based on this explanation, and our review of the information, we conclude the information at issue is held by the district attorney's office as an agent of the grand jury and is in the constructive possession of the grand jury. Thus, this information consists of records of the judiciary and is not subject to the disclosure requirements of the Act, and the district attorney's office need not release this information in response to this request.²

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. Sincerely,

Ashley Crutchfield

²As our ruling is dispositive, we need not address your remaining argument against disclosure.
