

ADDRESS CONFIDENTIALITY PROGRAM (ACP) CHECKLIST

COMPLETE ALL SECTIONS. Please INITIAL each paragraph. CHECK MARKS are NOT ACCEPTABLE. Incomplete/blank checklists WILL DELAY the processing of your ACP application.

I agree that:
I am a victim of: Family Violence, Sexual Assault, Stalking, Human Trafficking or Child Abduction.
I have enrolled in the ACP, which is a mail forwarding service, and that my mail will first come to the Office of the Attorney General (OAG) and then be forwarded to my confidential address which may result in a 3–4 day mail delay.
Magazines, catalogues, junk mail, or any packages that are not letter-size or flat-size and first class will not be forwarded to my confidential address.
Applying under a name other than my name without notification of my pseudonym to the OAG, could result in denial of ACP privileges or denial of services from other government agencies. I understand that the ACP cannot forward mail to me if it is addressed to a name differing from the name (or names) I provided on the ACP application.
The ACP will send me an authorization card when my application is approved. It is my responsibility to let relevant state and local government agencies know that I am now an ACP participant. I know I need to show a government agency my ACP authorization card for them to send my mail to the ACP substitute address.
Government agencies often share information. I have discussed with a victim advocate the impact of giving personal information to government agencies and private businesses.
The OAG may release my true residential, business or school address if requested by a law enforcement agency; the Department of Family and Protective Services for the purpose of conducting a child protective services investigation under Chapter 261, Family Code; the Department of State Health Services or a local health authority for the purpose of making a notification described by Article 21.31, Section 54.033, Family Code, or Section 81.051 Health and Safety Code; or if required by a court order.
I may also use my confidential address to register with the Victim Services Division of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice (TDCJ). Their confidential victim notification system provides written information about offenders' parole review status, location, release date, etc. Information about registration may be obtained by contacting TDCJ - Victim Services Division Monday through Friday from 7:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. at 1(800)848-4284 or (512) 406-5900 o by email at victim.svc@tdcj.state.tx.us website: www.tdcj.state.tx.us
I may also use my confidential address to register with the VINE Program for their victim notification on basic information about county jailed suspects/offenders and their jail status and court events. This information can be obtained by contacting the Texas VINE at 1-877-894-8463 or visiting their website at https://vinelink.vineapps.com/state/TX/ENGLISH
