

PUBLIC INFORMATION ACT CATASTROPHE NOTICE

Please review the attached instructions prior to completing the form. Instructions may also be viewed at <http://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/open-government/governmental-bodies/catastrophe-notice>.

SECTION 1 – GOVERNMENTAL BODY IMPACTED BY THE CATASTROPHE

GOVERNMENT CODE § 552.233

Pursuant to section 552.233(b), a governmental body may suspend the applicability of the requirements of the Public Information Act (the “Act”) if the governmental body is currently impacted by a catastrophe and provides proper notice in accordance with this section.

City of Port Aransas

(Name of Governmental Body Impacted by the Catastrophe) PLEASE PRINT

SECTION 2 – IDENTIFY AND DESCRIBE CATASTROPHE

Section 552.233(a)(1) defines catastrophe as a “condition or occurrence that interferes with the ability of a governmental body to comply with the requirements of this chapter[.]” Identify and describe the catastrophe impacting the governmental body:

On April 2, 2020, Port Aransas Mayor Charles R. Bujan extended the city’s Stay at Home order consistent with Governor Abbott’s Executive Order GA-14. In efforts to comply with social distancing the City staff is operating on a skeleton crew. This disaster interferes with the City’s ability to comply with the Texas Public Information Act.

SECTION 3 – SUSPENSION PERIOD

The initial suspension period may not exceed seven consecutive calendar days. A governmental body may not submit a catastrophe notice more than two calendar days prior to the beginning date of the suspension period. If the catastrophe impact is longer than seven calendar days, a governmental body may submit an extension notice at the end of the initial suspension period. A governmental body may only file one extension notice, and the extension notice may not exceed seven consecutive calendar days. See Gov’t Code §552.233(d), (e).

Beginning Date of Initial Suspension: 04/07/2020

End Date of Initial Suspension: 04/14/2020

Please note: Governmental bodies may not submit the initial suspension notice and the extension notice at the same time or on the same form. For purposes of section 552.233, the first day (beginning date) and the end date of the suspension period are counted as part of the suspension period.
