Texas Office of the Attorney General Names Conroe Child Support Employee Assistant Attorney General of the Year

Julie Conn was singled out as the region's top attorney for her dedication to Texas children

CONROE – The Office of the Attorney General recognized Julie Conn, an Assistant Attorney General (AAG) in the Child Support Division's Conroe office, for her commitment to Texas children. Conn was named Assistant Attorney General of the Year for the Child Support Division's Region 10. She was presented with the award on Monday, August 1, 2022, at the Statewide Assistant Attorneys General Virtual Conference.

"I commend Julie for her hard work and dedication to improving the lives of Texas children and families," Attorney General Paxton said. "Julie represents the best, and it is attorneys like her that make this agency great. I am thankful to her for answering the call to serve the people of Texas."

One Assistant Attorney General was selected for this honor from each of the state's ten child support regions, along with an Assistant Attorney General from the Child Support Division headquarters office in Austin. Honorees are chosen based on recommendations from their peers and supervisors, focusing on employees willing to go beyond their normal duties to serve Texas children. Each recipient demonstrates a desire to serve Texas families, help their colleagues, and enhance the Attorney General's Child Support Division.

Conn, who joined the Office of the Attorney General in 2020, represents the State of Texas in legal actions to establish paternity between children of unmarried parents and their biological fathers. She also works to establish, enforce, and modify court orders requiring parents to provide child support, medical support, and dental support.

A graduate of the University of Texas School of Law, Conn was chosen to be the region's Assistant Attorney General of the Year for being an exemplary attorney, willing trainer, and strong leader. She has demonstrated the willingness to take on any task and provide wise legal direction to her co-workers. She has earned a reputation as a reliable leader.

"Region 10 is proud to have Ms. Julie Conn representing the Child Support Division in the courts of Texas. She is an asset to the office and court team. Julie can always be counted on to lend a helping hand and teach those around her. She never shies away from a challenge, but instead rises to the occasion to find the best solution. Congratulations, Julie, and thank you for your dedication and passion for the CSD mission," said Region 10 Senior Regional Attorney Elaine Burgess.
